2. All records discussing the potential effect of any provision of HB 11 on Black, Latino, or other racial, ethnic, or sexual minorities and including without limitation the following provisions of HB 11:
 - i. Prohibition on employees of public K-12 schools and public institutions of higher education teaching concepts suggesting “that any individual, by virtue of sex, race, ethnicity, religion, national origin, is inherently responsible for any action committed in the past by any other member of the same sex, race, ethnicity, religion, color, or national origin.” (HB 11, Section 1)
 3. All records reflecting any analysis, consideration, or determination regarding how HB 11 would serve to decrease political divisiveness or promote racial, ethnic, or sexual equality, including any evidence or data supporting such analyses.

Please search for responsive records in the office of the following representative:

- Rep. Danny Crawford

Please search for responsive records regardless of format, medium, or physical characteristics. We seek records of any kind, including paper records, electronic records, audiotapes, videotapes, photographs, data, and graphical material. Our request includes without limitation all correspondence, letters, emails, text messages, facsimiles, telephone messages, voice mail messages, and transcripts, notes, or minutes of any meetings, telephone conversations, or discussions. Our request also includes any attachments to emails and other records, as well as emails to which the subjects of this request were cc'ed or bcc'ed.

If it is your position that any portion of the requested records is exempt from disclosure, please state the basis of the exemption you contend is applicable. Ala. Code § 36.12.40-41. If some portions of the requested records are properly exempt from disclosure, please redact those portions and produce the remainder of the requested records.

CREW is a non-profit corporation, organized under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. CREW is committed to protecting the public's right to be aware of the activities of government officials, to ensuring the integrity of those officials, and to highlighting and reducing the influence of money on politics. CREW intends to analyze the information responsive to this request and to share its analysis with the public. The release of information obtained through this request is not in CREW's financial interest.

If there are any fees for searching or copying these records, CREW agrees to pay up to $100. However, CREW also requests a waiver of all fees associated with the instant request because the disclosure of the requested information is in the public interest. The public is entitled to information concerning the decision-making processes of the Alabama House and the requested records would likely contribute to public understanding of who is seeking to influence the bill's passage and why. The public deserves to know what role, if any, external organizations may be playing promoting this proposed legislation. Further, this information is not being sought for commercial purposes. If copying fees are expected to exceed $100, or if you anticipate that "extensive use" of information technology resources or extensive clerical or supervisory assistance will be needed to fulfill this request, please contact me at foia@citizensforethics.org.

Where possible, please produce records in electronic format. Please send the requested records to me at either foia@citizensforethics.org or Justine Ellis, Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics in Washington, 1331 F St. NW, Suite 900, Washington, D.C. 20004.

Please contact me if you have any questions about this request or foresee any problems in fully releasing the requested records.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,
Justine Ellis
