Date: August 12, 2021

Dear Requester:

This is the third interim response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, originally received by the United States Secret Service (Secret Service) on January 21, 2021, for information pertaining to:

1. All records from December 1, 2020 to January 6, 2021 reflecting any plans for demonstrations, gatherings, disruptions, attacks, or riots in Washington, D.C. on January 6, 2021 that were identified by any DHS component—including without limitation the Office of Intelligence & Analysis (“I&A”) and the Federal Protective Service (“FPS”)—or other agencies through social media monitoring, threat assessments, or other means.

2. All records from December 1, 2020 to January 6, 2021 reflecting any tips, complaints, referrals, allegations, or reports submitted to any DHS component—including without limitation I&A and FPS—regarding planned demonstrations, gatherings, disruptions, attacks, or riots in Washington, D.C. on January 6, 2021.

3. All records from December 1, 2020 to January 6, 2021 reflecting DHS’s communication to other agencies—including without limitation the U.S. Capitol Police, the D.C. Metropolitan Police Department, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Department of Justice, or the Department of Defense—or the risks or threats posed by planned demonstrations, gatherings, disruptions, attacks, or riots in Washington, D.C. on January 6, 2021.

4. All records from December 1, 2020 to January 6, 2021 relating to any DHS component—including without limitation I&A and FPS—providing assistance or support to the U.S. Capitol Police, the D.C. Metropolitan Police Department, or any other agency in connection with the January 6, 2021 congressional session to count electoral votes.
After a detailed review of potentially responsive records, 161 pages were released. Exemptions under the FOIA Statute, Title 5 U.S.C. § 552 have been applied where deemed appropriate.

Enclosed are the documents responsive to your request, as well as a document that explains the exemptions in more detail. Withheld information is pursuant to the exemptions marked below.

Enclosure:
FOIA and Privacy Act Exemption List
FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT
SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552

Provisions of the Freedom of Information Act do not apply to matter that are:

(b) (1) (A) specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive Order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and (B) are in fact properly classified pursuant to such Executive order;
(b) (2) related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices any agency;
(b) (3) specifically exempted from disclosure by statute (other than section 552b of this title), if that statute: (A)(i) requires that the matters be withheld from the public in such a manner as to leave no discretion on the issue, or (ii) establishes particular criteria for withholding or refers to particular types of matters to be withheld; and (B) is established after the date of enactment of the OPEN FOIA Act of 2009;
(b) (4) trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential;
(b) (5) inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency; provided that the deliberative process privilege shall not apply to records created 25 years or more before the date on which the records were requested;
(b) (6) personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;
(b) (7) records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the information: (A) could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings; (B) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication; (C) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy; (D) could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of a confidential source, including a State, local, or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of a record or information compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation, or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source; (E) would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law; (F) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual;

(b) (8) contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of an agency responsible for regulation or supervision of financial institutions;

(b) (9) geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells.

PRIVACY ACT
SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552a

The provisions of the Privacy Act do not apply to:

(d) (5) material compiled in reasonable anticipation of civil action or proceeding;

(j) (2) material reporting investigative efforts pertaining to enforcement of criminal law including efforts to prevent, control, or reduce crime or apprehend criminals;

(k)(1) material is currently and properly classified pursuant to an Executive Order in the interest of national defense or foreign policy;

(k) (2) material compiled during investigations for law enforcement purposes;

(k) (3) material maintained in connection with providing protective services to the President of the United States or other individuals pursuant to section 3056 of Title 18;

(k) (5) investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment, military service, Federal contracts, or for access to classified information, but only to the extent that the disclosure of such material would reveal the identity of the person who furnished information to the Government under an express promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence, or prior to the September 27, 1975, under an implied promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence;

(k) (6) testing or examination material used solely to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in the Federal service the disclosure of which would compromise the objectivity or fairness of the testing or examination process;
Good Morning All,

Please see attached. I apologize for the delay but I have been experiencing some email issues this morning. I hope everyone has a great weekend.

All-

(U) Attached please find the aggregated NTIC Special Events Calendar for 31 December 2020–14 January 2021. Events have been assembled from agency partners and open source and are organized into two separate categories:

1. (U) Protests/Rallies/Walks
2. (U) Notable Events and Re-Openings

(U) Dissemination will occur weekly. As previously stated, the NTIC distributes this calendar only to partners who have completed the NTIC non-disclosure agreement. If your contacts or colleagues would like to be added to the distribution list, please refer them to NTIC@dc.gov.

(U) The NTIC appreciates your input on this product. Please feel free to reach out to the NTIC with any recommendations, feedback, or additions for upcoming calendars.
National Capital Region Threat Intelligence Consortium (NTIC) Special Events Calendar
(31 December 2020 – 14 January 2021)

The District of Columbia initiated Phase Two of its city-wide ReOpening plan on 22 June 2020. While there continue to be limitations on in-person gatherings, and in-venue capacities remain restricted, business is resuming. In an effort to highlight significant first amendment protected activities, and notable business and venue reopenings, the NTIC Special Events Calendar will be adapting its production to reflect these changes to our city. Until otherwise noted, please anticipate that the Special Events Calendar will be featuring events with much smaller estimated attendances at public and private venues, as well as indicating the reopening of businesses that may have an impact on infrastructure or public safety response, even where estimated attendance is unknown. If at any time the District returns to Phase One of its ReOpening Plan, the NTIC may pause production of this calendar again without notice.
