Re: Freedom of Information Act Request

Dear FOIA Officer:

Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics in Washington (“CREW”) makes this request for records pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (“FOIA”), 5 U.S.C. § 552, and U.S. International Development Finance Corporation (DFC) regulations.

Specifically, CREW requests the following:

1. Records sufficient to show the total amount of government funds expended on former Chief Executive Officer of the U.S. International Development Finance Corporation Adam Boehler’s November-December 2020 trip to Saudi Arabia with former Senior Advisor to the President Jared Kushner, former Assistant to the President and Special Representative for International Negotiations Avi Berkowitz, and Special Representative for Iran Brian Hook and any other trips he took with Jared Kushner to Saudi Arabia between September 1, 2020 and January 20, 2021, including without limitation any invoices, receipts, or other records reflecting the costs of travel, security, accommodations, food, beverages, and incidental expenses incurred on the trip.
2. All calendar entries reflecting any meetings attended by Boehler, including without limitation calendar entries mentioning any of the following terms.
 - “Mohammed bin Salman”
 - “Yassir al Rumayyan”
 - “MBS”
 - “Sovereign wealth fund”
 - “Public Investment Fund”
 - “PIF”
 - “Investment”
 - “Affinity Partners”

3. All communications within the DFC or between the DFC and other agencies from September 1, 2020 to January 20, 2021 mentioning Boehler and any of the following terms:
 - “Mohammed bin Salman”
 - “Yassir al Rumayyan”
 - “MBS”
 - “Sovereign wealth fund”
 - “Public Investment Fund”
 - “PIF”
 - “Investment”
 - “Affinity Partners”
4. Records relating to any meetings Boehler had with Saudi officials during his November-December 2020 trip to Saudi Arabia, and during any other trips he took to Saudi Arabia between September 1, 2020 and January 20, 2021, including but without limitation records reflecting the meeting attendees, agenda times, minutes, summaries, readouts, or similar records.

Please search for responsive records regardless of format, medium, or physical characteristics. We seek records of any kind, including paper records, electronic records, audiotapes, videotapes, photographs, data, and graphical material. Our request includes without limitation all correspondence, letters, emails, text messages, facsimiles, telephone messages, voice mail messages, and transcripts, notes, or minutes of any meetings, telephone conversations, or discussions. Our request also includes any attachments to emails and other records.

If it is your position that any portion of the requested records is exempt from disclosure, CREW requests that you provide it with an index of those documents as required under Vaughn v. Rosen, 484 F.2d 820 (D.C. Cir. 1973). If some portions of the requested records are properly exempt from disclosure, please disclose any reasonably segregable non-exempt portions of the requested records. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(b). If it is your position that a document contains non-exempt segments, but that those non-exempt segments are so dispersed throughout the document as to make segregation impossible, please state what portion of the document is non-exempt, and how the material is dispersed throughout the document. See Mead Data Central v. U.S. Dep't of the Air Force, 566 F.2d 242, 261 (D.C. Cir. 1977).

Fee Waiver Request

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A) and agency regulations, CREW requests a waiver of fees associated with processing this request for records. The subject of this request concerns the operations of the federal government, and the disclosures likely will contribute to a better understanding of relevant government procedures by CREW and the general public in a significant way. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(iii). Moreover, the request primarily and fundamentally is for non-commercial purposes. See, e.g., McClellan Ecological v. Carlucci, 835 F.2d 1282, 1285 (9th Cir. 1987).

On April 10 the New York Times reported that Jared Kushner received a $2 billion investment for his new investment fund, Affinity Partners, from the Saudi sovereign wealth fund, led by Crown Prince Mohammed Bin Salman, despite objections from the fund's advisors.¹ Throughout his time in the Administration Kushner developed a friendship with Prince Mohammed, defending him in the wake of the killing of journalist Jamal Khashoggi and later working with him to negotiate the Abraham Accords.² The hefty investment as well as the close relationship between the two bring attention to Kushner's travels to the Middle East.

In the last few months of the Trump Administration Kushner made at least three trips to Saudi Arabia. On September 1, 2020, Kushner met with Prince Mohammed in Riyadh to discuss peace talks between Israel and Palestine.³ On November 30, 2020, Kushner traveled to Saudi Arabia again with "Middle East envoys Avi Berkowitz and Brian Hook as well as Adam Boehler, chief executive of the US International Development Finance Corporation" to make final achievements in the Trump Administration's Middle East policy.⁴ Kushner's final trip took place in early January, when he traveled back to the country for a summit meeting with leaders of the Gulf Cooperation Council on January 5.⁵

The requested records will shed light on the extent of Kushner's meetings with Prince Mohammed and the Saudi Public Investment Fund, as well as the amount of taxpayer funds used to transport and support Boehler and his colleagues on these trips. There is significant public interest in knowing if Kushner used government funds to expand his own personal wealth on trips he took with Boehler meant for diplomacy.

Nat'l Sec. Archive v. U.S. Dep't of Defense, 880 F.2d 1381, 1386 (D.C. Cir. 1989) (holding non-profit a “representative of the news media” and broadly interpreting the term to include “any person or organization which regularly publishes or disseminates information to the public”).

CREW routinely and systematically disseminates information to the public in several ways. CREW’s website receives tens of thousands of page views every month. The website includes blogposts that report on and analyze newsworthy developments regarding government ethics, corruption, and money in politics, as well as numerous reports CREW has published to educate the public about these issues. In addition, CREW posts documents it receives under the FOIA its website, which has been visited hundreds of thousands of times.

Under these circumstances, CREW satisfies fully the criteria for a fee waiver.

Conclusion

If you have any questions about this request or foresee any problems in fully releasing the requested records, please contact me at rjacobs@citizensforethics.org. Also, if CREW’s request for a fee waiver is not granted in full, please contact our office immediately upon making such a determination.
