Secretary of Homeland Security Kirstjen M. Nielsen on the Nomination of Chad Wolf

Today, President Trump nominated Chad F. Wolf to be the Under Secretary for Strategy, Policy, and Plans. I congratulate Chad on his nomination and am excited that he will continue to serve the Department in this critically important position and look forward to a swift confirmation process.

Chad has tirelessly and exceptionally served as the Department's Chief of Staff over the last year as an invaluable advisor and senior leader. Chad's leadership, expertise, and knowledge of the challenging issues confronting the Department make him an excellent nominee for Under Secretary. Prior to his appointment as the Chief of Staff, Chad served as both the Acting Chief of Staff and the Deputy Chief of Staff at the Department. In early 2017 he also served as the Chief of Staff at the Transportation Security Administration (TSA).

Before serving DHS in this administration, Chad was Vice President and Senior Director at Wexler | Walker, a bipartisan public policy consultancy. From 2002 to 2005, Chad helped stand up the TSA in the wake of the 9/11 attacks and served as Assistant Administrator of Transportation Security Policy. Early in his career, Chad worked in the U.S. Senate.

Chad has a bachelor's degree in history from Southern Methodist University, and a master certificate in government contract management from Villanova University.

Please join me in congratulating Chad on his nomination.

Sincerely,

Kirstjen M. Nielsen
Secretary of Homeland Security

With honor and integrity, we will safeguard the American people, our homeland, and our values.

Chad,

I don't know what your status is with regard to taking meetings with outside companies, so tell me how to proceed on this request. There is a company, Blue Ridge Networks, that has cybersecurity technology that is constantly shown to be superior to anything else in the marketplace. I do not have them as a client, but have been an outside advisor to them for several years. The Coast Guard uses them and would highly recommend them, I believe. Japan has licensed the technology and is in the process of installing their technology broadly throughout the government and private sector. Many financial institutions are satisfied customers. It is compatible with previously installed technologies. In all the time it has been used, it has never been penetrated.

They would like to brief you, if that's possible. If your present circumstance does not permit that kind of interaction, could you recommend a decision-maker inside DHS who would be the right place for them to have a discussion about their capabilities?

Thanks for anything you can do.

Hope all is well.

PRESS RELEASE

SECRETARY NIELSEN STATEMENT ON THE NOMINATION OF CHAD WOLF

WASHINGTON- Today, Secretary of Homeland Security Kirstjen M. Nielsen released the following statement on President Trump's nomination of Chad F. Wolf to be the Under Secretary of Policy at the Department of Homeland Security:

"On behalf of the Department of Homeland Security's quarter of million dedicated men and women, I want to congratulate Chad Wolf on his nomination to be the Under Secretary of Homeland Security for Policy. Chad has tirelessly served DHS for the last two years in various positions, including most recently as Chief of Staff for the Department. While Chad's shoes will be tough to fill, I am confident he will bring the same work ethic, knowledge and skillset to the Office of Strategy, Policy and Plans. I look forward to continuing our work together in his new role."

S1 MESSAGE

Secretary of Homeland Security Kirstjen M. Nielsen on the Nomination of Chad Wolf

Today, President Trump nominated Chad F. Wolf to be the Under Secretary of Homeland Security for Policy. I congratulate Mr. Wolf on his nomination and wish him the best of luck in the confirmation process.

Chad has admirably served as the Department's Chief of Staff over the last year. Chad has extensive government and management experience in both the public and private sectors, and is regarded as a key advisor and problem solver who performs well under pressure. Prior to his appointment as the Chief of Staff, Mr. Wolf served as both the Acting Chief of Staff and the Deputy Chief of Staff at the Department. He has also served as the Chief of Staff at the Transportation Security Administration (TSA).

Before serving DHS in this administration, Mr. Wolf was Vice President and Senior Director at Wexler | Walker, a bipartisan public policy consultancy. From 2002 to 2005, Mr. Wolf helped stand up the TSA in the wake of 9/11 attacks and served as Assistant Administrator of Transportation Security Policy. Early in his career, Mr. Wolf worked in the U.S. Senate for former Senators Phil Gramm and Chuck Hagel.

Mr. Wolf has a bachelor's degree in history from Southern Methodist University, and a master certificate in government contract management from Villanova University. An avid outdoorsman, Chad is an elite athlete who has completed 5 Iron Man triathlons and is a six-time tennis champion at the Army Navy Country Club.

Please join me in congratulating Chad Wolf on his nomination and his new role at DHS.

Sincerely,

Kirstjen M. Nielsen

The Lancaster County Republican Committee is looking for speaker for their Fall event. Lancaster is the key County in Pennsylvania for the statewide vote because it delivers the largest Republican pluralities. Obviously, with both a Governor and Senate race, it's an important event.

Great to hear from you! All is well at USCIS. I oversee our information sharing agreements with other federal agencies, and with other countries. It's interesting work, and there aren't many "emergencies"... which has been great for work/life balance after 6 and a half years in the DHS front office.

Hopefully your move to building 17 will at least move you in the direction of normal...though I doubt it will get you there completely. There are some great folks over there! Don't ever hesitate to let me know if I can help.

Secretary of Homeland Security Kirstjen M. Nielsen on the Nomination of Chad Wolf

Today, President Trump nominated Chad F. Wolf to be the Under Secretary for Strategy, Policy, and Plans. I congratulate Chad on his nomination and am excited that he will continue to serve the Department in this critically important position and look forward to a swift confirmation process.

Chad has tirelessly and exceptionally served as the Department's Chief of Staff over the last year as an invaluable advisor and senior leader. Chad's leadership, expertise, and knowledge of the challenging issues confronting the Department make him an excellent nominee for Under Secretary. Prior to his appointment as the Chief of Staff, Chad served as both the Acting Chief of Staff and the Deputy Chief of Staff at the Department. In early 2017 he also served as the Chief of Staff at the Transportation Security Administration (TSA).

Before serving DHS in this administration, Chad was Vice President and Senior Director at Wexler | Walker, a bipartisan public policy consultancy. From 2002 to 2005, Chad helped stand up the TSA in the wake of the 9/11 attacks and served as Assistant Administrator of Transportation Security Policy. Early in his career, Chad worked in the U.S. Senate.

Chad has a bachelor's degree in history from Southern Methodist University, and a master certificate in government contract management from Villanova University.

Please join me in congratulating Chad on his nomination.

Sincerely,

Kirstjen M. Nielsen

Secretary of Homeland Security

With honor and integrity, we will safeguard the American people, our homeland, and our values.

Sounds ok to me - I don't know the company. I gave a plan to Erica Dornburg that I would meet frequently with a diverse set of industry execs. I think it's good to hear their perspective as long as they understand we don't make buying decisions. I can back bench for you or cover if you prefer.

Chad,

I don't know what your status is with regard to taking meetings with outside companies, so tell me how to proceed on this request. There is a company, Blue Ridge Networks, that has cybersecurity technology that is constantly shown to be superior to anything else in the marketplace. I do not have them as a client, but have been an outside advisor to them for several years. The Coast Guard uses them and would highly recommend them, I believe. Japan has licensed the technology and is in the process of installing their technology broadly throughout the government and private sector. Many financial institutions are satisfied customers. It is compatible with previously installed technologies. In all the time it has been used, it has never been penetrated.

They would like to brief you, if that's possible. If your present circumstance does not permit that kind of interaction, could you recommend a decision-maker inside DHS who would be the right place for them to have a discussion about their capabilities?

Thanks for anything you can do.

Hope all is well.

Secretary of Homeland Security Kirstjen M. Nielsen on the Nomination of Chad Wolf

Today, President Trump nominated Chad F. Wolf to be the Under Secretary for Strategy, Policy, and Plans. I congratulate Chad on his nomination and am excited that he will continue to serve the Department in this critically important position and look forward to a swift confirmation process.

Chad has tirelessly and exceptionally served as the Department's Chief of Staff over the last year as an invaluable advisor and senior leader. Chad's leadership, expertise, and knowledge of the challenging issues confronting the Department make him an excellent nominee for Under Secretary. Prior to his appointment as the Chief of Staff, Chad served as both the Acting Chief of Staff and the Deputy Chief of Staff at the Department. In early 2017 he also served as the Chief of Staff at the Transportation Security Administration (TSA).

Before serving DHS in this administration, Chad was Vice President and Senior Director at Wexler | Walker, a bipartisan public policy consultancy. From 2002 to 2005, Chad helped stand up the TSA in the wake of the 9/11 attacks and served as Assistant Administrator of Transportation Security Policy. Early in his career, Chad worked in the U.S. Senate.

Chad has a bachelor's degree in history from Southern Methodist University, and a master certificate in government contract management from Villanova University.

Please join me in congratulating Chad on his nomination.

Sincerely,

Kirstjen M. Nielsen
Secretary of Homeland Security

CHAD F. WOLF

Senior Official Performing the Duties of the Under Secretary &

Assistant Secretary for Strategy, Plans, Analysis and Risk

Office of Strategy, Policy, and Plans

U.S. Department of Homeland Security

(INSERT PHOTO)

Chad F. Wolf is the Senior Official Performing the Duties of the Under Secretary and the Assistant Secretary for Strategy, Plans, Analysis, and Risk in the Office of Strategy, Policy, and Plans (PLCY). PLCY leads, conducts, and coordinates Department-wide policy development and strategic planning to promote quality, consistency, and integration for the programs, Components, offices, and activities across the Department.

Mr. Wolf has over 20 years of policy development and management experience in both the public and private sectors. Early in his career, Mr. Wolf worked in the U.S. Senate for former Senators Phil Gramm and Chuck Hagel.

From 2002 to 2005, Mr. Wolf helped stand up the Transportation Security Administration in the wake of 9/11 attacks and served as Assistant Administrator of Transportation Security Policy where he facilitated the establishment of the “laptop ban.”

Before serving the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) in this administration, Mr. Wolf was Vice President and Senior Director at Wexler | Walker, a bipartisan public policy consultancy, where he advocated for a range of clients on various issues before the U.S. Congress, including aviation and homeland security issues.

Mr. Wolf has served in a variety of positions within DHS during this administration. He served as Chief of Staff at TSA. He has also served as both the Deputy Chief of Staff and Chief of Staff at the Department. During his time as Chief of Staff at DHS HQ, Mr. Wolf was responsible for providing counsel on all activities and matters involving homeland security initiatives, operations, and programs. He also initiated and maintained contacts and served as liaison for the Department with other Cabinet-level departments where he represented the Secretary's interests and built support for policy proposals and resource needs.

Mr. Wolf earned an undergraduate degree in history from Southern Methodist University. He holds a master's certificate in government contract management from Villanova University.

Hi Chad,

Congressman Walker provided me with your email after one of our conversations where I expressed my interest in DHS.

You and I met in 2015 during a trip I took with a Millersville University cohort to Wexler & Walker where you shared so openly your story of traveling from SMU to Washington, D.C. as a recent graduate in hopes of landing a job on the Hill.

During my search to begin my career I thought about your story often and demonstrated the same determination and grit you had referenced. Since then, I have been working in Maryland for the Hogan administration with aspirations for the future.

I will be in the DC area on August 16th, meeting with Congressman Walker and would love the opportunity to meet with you and discuss opportunities within DHS.

Yes – I told S1 about (b)(6)
Where are we with finding Silver a slot at the WH?
I think (b)(6) could fill either of those slots.
If for S1 – then yes, S1 would need to meet.
I also need to meet her (it's been a couple of years since we last talked).
Maybe schedule a time in early September for both me and S1. Separate meetings.

I met with (b)(6) today and really liked her. I think she will be a good fit for the front office in (b)(6) position but assisting the Secretary more in administrative duties. Do either of you want to meet her or think S1 should meet her?

On another note, has anyone told S1 that (b)(6) will be moving to OPE? I told her at the beginning of October but now that I have a candidate for her position, I think we can massage the timing.

Tyler – thank you for drafting.

A few edits below.

Will also need a second message than announces several front office moves – me to PLCY, Miles to Chief and Sam Kaplan to Deputy Chief.

SECRETARY NIELSEN STATEMENT ON THE NOMINATION OF CHAD WOLF

WASHINGTON- Today, Secretary of Homeland Security Kirstjen M. Nielsen released the following statement on President Trump's nomination of Chad F. Wolf to be the Under Secretary of Strategy, Policy, and Plans at the Department of Homeland Security:

"On behalf of the Department of Homeland Security's quarter of million dedicated men and women, I want to congratulate Chad Wolf on his nomination to be the Under Secretary of Homeland Security for Policy. Chad has tirelessly served DHS for the last two years in various positions, including most recently as Chief of Staff for the Department. While Chad's shoes will be tough to fill, I am confident he will bring the same work ethic, knowledge and skillset to the Office of Strategy, Policy and Plans. I look forward to continuing our work together in his new role."

S1 MESSAGE

Secretary of Homeland Security Kirstjen M. Nielsen on the Nomination of Chad Wolf

Today, President Trump nominated Chad F. Wolf to be the Under Secretary of Homeland Security for Strategy, Policy, and Plans. I congratulate Mr. Wolf Chad on his nomination and am excited that he will continue to serve the Department in this critically important position wish him the best of luck in the confirmation process.

Chad has admirably served as the Department's Chief of Staff over the last year as an invaluable advisor and senior leader. Chad's leadership, expertise, and knowledge of the challenging issues confronting the Department make him an excellent nominee for Under Secretary. Chad has extensive government and management experience in both the public and private sectors, and is regarded as a key advisor and problem solver who performs well under pressure. Prior to his appointment as the Chief of Staff,

~~Mr. Wolf~~ Chad served as both the Acting Chief of Staff and the Deputy Chief of Staff at the Department.

~~He has~~ In early 2017 he also served as the Chief of Staff at the Transportation Security Administration (TSA).

Before serving DHS in this administration,

~~Mr. Wolf~~ Chad was Vice President and Senior Director at Wexler | Walker, a bipartisan public policy consultancy. From 2002 to 2005,

~~Mr. Wolf~~ Chad helped stand up the TSA in the wake of 9/11 attacks and served as Assistant Administrator of Transportation Security Policy. Early in his career, Mr. Wolf worked in the U.S. Senate.-

~~for former Senators Phil Gramm and Chuck Hagel.~~

~~Mr. Wolf~~

Chad has a bachelor's degree in history from Southern Methodist University, and a master certificate in government contract management from Villanova University.

~~An avid outdoorsman, Chad is an elite athlete who has completed 5 Iron Man triathlons and is a six-time tennis champion at the Army Navy Country Club.~~

Please join me in congratulating Chad

~~Wolf~~ on his nomination ~~and his new role at DHS.~~

Sincerely,

Kirstjen M. Nielsen

Secretary of Homeland Security

With honor and integrity, we will safeguard the American people, our homeland, and our values.

Hi Chad, What a year, or two, right? I think of you often, whenever the news is on these days actually. And, I am comforted knowing that you are at DHS.....

Hey – I think you briefly met the Wexler Walker fellow who worked for us for the 6 months before the firm was closed. His name is (b)(6) and he was among the best of our young, just starting out employees.

His studies and areas of interest are aligned with national security and he would be a great fit with the DHS mission. He just completed his master's degree from Johns Hopkins. I am pretty sure he is a Republican (he worked for Rep. Smucker and grew up in the Lancaster, PA area).... I am attaching (b)(6) resume, he is working for (b)(6) as his Chief of Staff, you know the drill – taking care of everything (b)(6) is supposed to be doing for his clients – until he finds a job aligned with his interests.

Any chance you might have an opening at DHS for someone like (b)(6) } Cheers, (b)(6)

SECRETARY NIELSEN STATEMENT ON THE NOMINATION OF CHAD WOLF

WASHINGTON- Today, Secretary of Homeland Security Kirstjen M. Nielsen released the following statement on President Trump's nomination of Chad F. Wolf to be the Under Secretary for Strategy, Policy, and Plans at the Department of Homeland Security:

"On behalf of the Department of Homeland Security's quarter of million dedicated men and women, I want to congratulate Chad on his nomination to be the Under Secretary for Strategy, Policy, and Plans. Chad has tirelessly served DHS for the last two years in various positions, including most recently as Chief of Staff for the Department. While Chad's shoes will be tough to fill, I am confident he will bring the same work ethic, knowledge and skillset to the Office of Strategy, Policy and Plans. I look forward to continuing our work together in his new role and to a swift confirmation process."

Secretary of Homeland Security Kirstjen M. Nielsen on the Nomination of Chad Wolf

Today, President Trump nominated Chad F. Wolf to be the Under Secretary for Strategy, Policy, and Plans. I congratulate Chad on his nomination and am excited that he will continue to serve the Department in this critically important position and look forward to a swift confirmation process.

Chad has admirably served as the Department's Chief of Staff over the last year as an invaluable advisor and senior leader. Chad's leadership, expertise, and knowledge of the challenging issues confronting the Department make him an excellent nominee for Under Secretary. Prior to his appointment as the Chief of Staff, Chad served as both the Acting Chief of Staff and the Deputy Chief of Staff at the Department. In early 2017 he also served as the Chief of Staff at the Transportation Security Administration (TSA).

Before serving DHS in this administration, Chad was Vice President and Senior Director at Wexler | Walker, a bipartisan public policy consultancy. From 2002 to 2005, Chad helped stand up the TSA in the wake of 9/11 attacks and served as Assistant Administrator of Transportation Security Policy. Early in his career, Mr. Wolf worked in the U.S. Senate.

Chad has a bachelor's degree in history from Southern Methodist University, and a master certificate in government contract management from Villanova University

Please join me in congratulating Chad on his nomination.

Congressman Walker provided me with your email after one of our conversations where I expressed my interest in DHS.

You and I met in 2015 during a trip I took with a Millersville University cohort to Wexler & Walker where you shared so openly your story of traveling from SMU to Washington, D.C. as a recent graduate in hopes of landing a job on the Hill.

During my search to begin my career I thought about your story often and demonstrated the same determination and grit you had referenced. Since then, I have been working in Maryland for the Hogan administration with aspirations for the future.

I will be in the DC area on August 16th, meeting with Congressman Walker and would love the opportunity to meet with you and discuss opportunities within DHS.

Subject: Congressman Walker connection

Hi Chad,

Congressman Walker provided me with your email after one of our conversations where I expressed my interest in DHS.

You and I met in 2015 during a trip I took with a Millersville University cohort to Wexler & Walker where you shared so openly your story of traveling from SMU to Washington, D.C. as a recent graduate in hopes of landing a job on the Hill.

During my search to begin my career I thought about your story often and demonstrated the same determination and grit you had referenced. Since then, I have been working in Maryland for the Hogan administration with aspirations for the future.

I will be in the DC area on August 16th, meeting with Congressman Walker and would love the opportunity to meet with you and discuss opportunities within DHS.

Kind Regards,

(b)(6)

Secretary of Homeland Security Kirstjen M. Nielsen on the Nomination of Chad Wolf

Today, President Trump nominated Chad F. Wolf to be the Under Secretary for Strategy, Policy, and Plans. I congratulate Chad on his nomination and am excited that he will continue to serve the Department in this critically important position and look forward to a swift confirmation process.

Chad has tirelessly and exceptionally served as the Department's Chief of Staff over the last year as an invaluable advisor and senior leader. Chad's leadership, expertise, and knowledge of the challenging issues confronting the Department make him an excellent nominee for Under Secretary. Prior to his appointment as the Chief of Staff, Chad served as both the Acting Chief of Staff and the Deputy Chief of Staff at the Department. In early 2017 he also served as the Chief of Staff at the Transportation Security Administration (TSA).

Before serving DHS in this administration, Chad was Vice President and Senior Director at Wexler | Walker, a bipartisan public policy consultancy. From 2002 to 2005, Chad helped stand up the TSA in the wake of the 9/11 attacks and served as Assistant Administrator of Transportation Security Policy. Early in his career, Chad worked in the U.S. Senate.

Chad has a bachelor's degree in history from Southern Methodist University, and a master certificate in government contract management from Villanova University.

Please join me in congratulating Chad on his nomination.

Sincerely,

Kirstjen M. Nielsen

Hi Chad, What a year, or two, right? I think of you often, whenever the news is on these days actually. And, I am comforted knowing that you are at DHS.....

Hey – I think you briefly met the Wexler Walker fellow who worked for us for the 6 months before the firm was closed. His name is (b)(6) and he was among the best of our young, just starting out employees. His studies and areas of interest are aligned with national security and he would be a great fit with the DHS mission. He just completed his master's degree from Johns Hopkins. I am pretty sure he is a Republican (he worked for Rep. Smucker and grew up in the Lancaster, PA area).... I am attaching (b)(6) resume, he is working for (b)(6) as his Chief of Staff, you know the drill – taking care of everything (b)(6) is supposed to be doing for his clients – until he finds a job aligned with his interests.

Any chance you might have an opening at DHS for someone like (b)(6)? Cheers, (b)(6)
