Dear Mr. Sus:

As we noted in our letter dated September 29, 2022, we are processing your request for material under the Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA"), 5 U.S.C. § 552. Thus far, the Department of State has identified an additional five responsive records subject to the FOIA. We have determined that all five records may be released in part.

An enclosure explains the FOIA exemptions and other grounds for withholding material. Where we have made redactions, the applicable FOIA exemptions are marked on each record. All non-exempt material that is reasonably segregable from the exempt material has been released and is enclosed.

We will keep you informed as your case progresses. If you have any questions, your attorney may contact Assistant United States Attorney Benton Peterson at Benton.Peterson@usdoj.gov or (202) 252-2534. Please refer to the case number, FL-2020-00134, and the civil action number, 20-cv-02076, in all correspondence about this case.

Sincerely,

Hi,

I'm sure this goes without saying, but we officially received the following guidance/approval from S today:

S approved memo 202002637, to lead the State Delegation to the WH Sate Dinner with the Spanish King and Queen/

- 1. He advised he will work on the list of who to invite from our side
- 2. He asked to move the Madison Dinner on April 21 to accommodate this State Dinner.

I have not yet received guidance from S or Mrs. P on an alternative date for rescheduling this Madison Dinner.

Thank you.

I did get your email and I thought I responded. Please forgive me. I was traveling with POTUS this weekend and Mary-Kate and I are currently in Austin with 35 ambassadors today and tomorrow. I would be delighted to meet with you when we are back in the office on Wednesday, Thursday or Friday. If you are not available those days, would you like us to set up a call instead?

Best,

Sorry ma'am –

I can certainly provide recommendations as I know many of the Ambassadors very well. My only concern (which maybe wasn’t relayed correctly) was that I can provide recommendations of FABULOUS guests, but if there are policy considerations on the strategic purpose of these dinners, I would just take direction from S staff.

With that, here is an initial list of Ambassadors that I'm sure will be great guests:

Subject: Madison Dinners Foreign Invitees--HELP!

Importance: High

Lisa and Sean,

I have reached a wall—and Mike and I don't want to cancel the launch of the Madison dinners for another month. I cannot get a list of suggested foreign guest names for our July kick off dinners. The invitations are being put in the mail this week. Yesterday, was our self imposed deadline to give Mike a list of foreign guest names to choose from for the July 17 dinner, but another hurdle was thrown out last night—so I am coming straight to you two. I feel confident that we can get this done.

Sean, I understand from (b)(6) that you are reluctant to provide any names as you don't want to step on toes. My thought in asking you for names of Ambassadors that we might consider is that you know a good many of them thru your leadership of "Experience America." I thought you could provide names of a dozen Ambassadors that would be lively additions to a dinner party such as the Madison Dinners and provide interesting conversation and insights for our guests. Possible?

Lisa, everyone seems to be running every time I ask about foreign diplomats who might attend a Madison Dinner. This could be a foreign diplomat who has a scheduled OFFICIAL trip to the U.S. (we want nothing to do with any private trips for doctor's appointments or anything else—just a look see at Mike's calendar for those who might be already scheduled to visit the week of a Madison dinner) OR a foreign diplomat who, if invited in advance, might make a trip in to join us for a Madison Dinner. I understand that Sean has suggested that Lisa could contact all our bureau heads about the dinners and generate names that way. The guidance that Mike provided is as follows:

*We don't want interpreters at the dinners, so the guest must speak enough English to participate in the conversation.

*It doesn't matter if a spouse or guest is with the individual. Singles are just fine. It's also fine if a foreign diplomat wants to bring along their Ambassador to the U.S. Fine. Fine. Fine.

*Mike hopes that someone will use some creative thinking—who has a big event or holiday coming up in their country? How about an important new humanitarian or economic development initiative? Mike could ask the foreign diplomat guest to take five minutes during the dinner and share with everyone.

Mike and I both think that the foreign guests at these Madison dinners have the potential to add real richness to the conversation and evening, if a little creativity is at play on the planning end. Otherwise, Mike and I will just pluck names and plug them in, which won't be nearly as effective.

The initial guest list (obviously, we may have regrets and other guests will be slid into the regretting guests places) for the launch of the Madison Dinners in July:

Ms. Norah O'Donnell and her husband, (Chef) Geoff Tracy Mr. Chuck and Karen Ghoorah Secretary Steven and Louise (Linton) Mnuchin Senator John and Sandy Cornyn Mr. LT Tosi and guest Foreign Ambassador/Minister.

Appreciate your thoughts and assistance, as always,

Susan

Ambassador/Foreign Minister—Sean, any targeted recommendation based on timing of dinner and/or guest list?

Other details

1, Electronic follow up to postal mailed invitation. Sean, yesterday you showed me a draft of this email follow up. I did not draft the email. I drafted invitation copy. Perhaps the email used invitation copy that was not used in the hard copy invitation? Regardless, I would like to have a copy of the final email follow up, so please send to me when you have a moment and I will hold to share with Mike.

2, Dinner favors. Thank you for shepherding the pen favor for the dinners. You and I concur that using the dinner logo will be best (albeit still small) on a clip emblem.

3, Dinner printed program. Next week, could someone let me see even a rough draft of the dinner program that would include: menu, dinner guest list, re-stated historical “back story” of the evolution of these Madison Dinners? (b)(6) to lead?)

4, Artifact historical information. I’ve asked (b)(6) to provide me with brief historical information on artifacts that would be particularly germane to these Madison Dinners. I will talk about one artifact—as a good way to quiet the group and ask them to move from the Monroe Room to the Madison Room for dinner. (b)(6) to provide to me NLT next week.)

5, Guest entrance/exit routes. We are thinking that guests for the dinners could be brought up to the 8th floor (b)(7)(E) so that they have a chance to walk thru the magnificent diplomatic rooms on their way to cocktails. The guests would depart via the closer-to-the-Madison-Room elevators (b)(7)(E). Make sure to you?

6, Guest parking. Who is working with DS to determine how best to accommodate our guests regarding parking? Do I need to do anything here?

7, Art/Museum VIP tour card for guests. We want to provide each guest (I’m thinking underneath or slipped into menu program) with an invitation to come back with family or colleagues to the Department of State for a “VIP” tour of the diplomatic rooms and a blurb about the U.S. Diplomacy Center, with the same offer. We should provide a name and telephone number on this printed card for each (I’m hoping (b)(6) name for the diplomatic rooms and (b)(6) for the diplomacy center.) (b)(6) to make this happen. Susan needs to see draft next week.)

8, Menu for cocktail time and dinner/Signature seasonal cocktail for the dinners/food item that reflects or dates back to Dolley’s social events. Need to see menu and all next week with enough time to run by Mike via telephone. (b)(6)

9, Music. We have music questions still pending: pianist in Monroe Room or will that be too loud? Do we have the capability for piped in music in both the Monroe Room and the Madison Room? (b)(6)—need answers by next week)
