The above request excludes agency records consisting solely of news articles, press clippings, and other publicly-available material, so long as the records include no accompanying discussion by agency officials.

Please search for responsive records regardless of format, medium, or physical characteristics. This request includes any responsive records sent or received by the Executive Office via any private, nongovernmental account, as well as those records maintained, stored or archived in the cloud, on a shared drive, on the internet, via any electronic portal, via social media accounts, by screenshot or any other electronic system or device such as a cell phone, tablet, flash drive, computer or server that is capable of sending, receiving or storing digital information. We seek records of any kind, including paper records, electronic records, audiotapes, videotapes, photographs, data, and graphical material. Our request includes without limitation all correspondence, letters, emails, text messages, facsimiles, telephone messages, voice mail messages, and transcripts, notes, or minutes of any meetings, telephone conversations, or discussions. Our request also includes any attachments to emails and other records, as well as emails to which the subjects of this request were cc'ed or bcc'ed.

By way of background, on April 25, 2022, Florida Governor Ron DeSantis signed Senate Bill 524, which created the Office of Election Crimes and Security (OECS) to investigate election law violations,<sup>5</sup> despite there being no evidence that voter fraud was significant enough to alter the 2020 election.<sup>6</sup> On August 18, 2022, OECS, along with Governor DeSantis and Florida law enforcement, announced the arrest of 20 individuals charged with election fraud, a third-degree felony.<sup>7</sup> On October 21, 2022, a judge in Miami found the statewide prosecutor lacked the jurisdiction to prosecute these cases.<sup>8</sup> The requested records will provide transparency into the Office of the Statewide Prosecutor's role in pursuing these and other voter fraud cases.

If it is your position that any portion of the requested records is exempt from disclosure, Chapter 119 requires you to state the basis of the exemption you contend is applicable. Fla. Stat. § 119.07(1)(e). We further request that you state in writing and with particularity the reasons for any conclusion that a record is exempt or confidential. Fla. Stat. § 119.07(1)(f). If some portions of the requested records are properly exempt from disclosure, Chapter 119 requires you to redact those portions and produce the remainder of the requested records. Fla. Stat. § 119.07(1)(d).

We agree to pay up to $100 for copies of the requested records. If copying fees are expected to exceed this amount, or if you anticipate that "extensive use" of information technology resources or extensive clerical or supervisory assistance as defined in section 119.07(4)(d) will be needed to fulfill this request, please call me at (202) 408-5565 or email me at ali@citizensforethics.org and foia@citizensforethics.org.

Where possible, please produce records in electronic format. Please send the requested records electronically to ali@citizensforethics.org and foia@citizensforethics.org or by mail to Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics in Washington, 1331 F Street, NW, Suite 900, Washington, DC 20004.

Please contact me if you have any questions about this request or foresee any problems in fully releasing the requested records. We anticipate you will fulfill your obligations under Chapter 119. If it is necessary to file an action to enforce the Public Records Act, the court may award reasonable costs of enforcement, including attorneys' fees. Fla. Stat. § 119.12. Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,
