January 4, 2020

(U) Executive Summary

On January 6th, 2021, a joint session of Congress will meet on Capitol Hill to certify the votes of the Electors to the Electoral College from each state in the Union. Large groups of demonstrators are anticipated to travel to Washington, DC in advance of the vote. Past encounters between opposing protest groups have occasionally led to violence between them and against law enforcement personnel, as well as damage to private and government property. Roughly 26 demonstration permits have been approved by the US Park Police for January 5-7, including Freedom Plaza, Washington Monument, the National Mall Area and the Capitol, and several hotels are sold out on January 5-6, both indicators of large crowds. Permit application estimates indicate there could be approximately 28,000 people in attendance for these events. At least 55 additional demonstrations have been mentioned on social media for January 6, but it is unclear whether any are permitted.

The Proud Boys (RID), a group who is of record for numerous demonstrations at the White House and temporarily protected sites, have advised they will not wear their traditional black and yellow attire and will dress "incognito." The group self-reported plans to demonstrate in smaller groups throughout DC. Current numbers of planned participants were not indicated, but the group stated they will "turn out in record numbers." The group has not been known to engage in civil disobedience and their demonstrations have ended without incidents or arrests.

(U) Recent Events Featuring Violent Tactics

On Saturday, 12/12/20, at least eight officers sustained injuries during violent altercations after a Million MAGA March rally in DC as objects were thrown and officers were assaulted. Multiple assaults took place between protestors and four individuals were stabbed after an argument escalated. Shields, eye gear, helmets, armor, pepper spray, and a variety of weapons were utilized by the opposing sides.

- In Sacramento, individuals threw objects at officers and some deployed pepper spray. Individuals from opposing protest groups wore gas masks, helmets, and armor.
- In Olympia, WA, officers were assaulted by objects including rocks, a baton, and a paintball gun. Individuals from opposing groups possessed firearms and one individual was arrested in connection to a shooting. Additionally, a large firework IED that failed to detonate was found in the area which had to be rendered safe by the state bomb squad.

On Saturday, 12/05/20, three Sacramento officers suffered minor injuries during dueling protests which saw thrown objects and lasers shone into officers' eyes.

On Saturday, 11/14/20, during clashes after the Million MAGA March rally between pro-Trump supporters and counter protesters, four DC police officers were injured while intervening in fights and keeping the opposing sides separate. There were reports of objects being thrown, including rocks and bottles. One protestor was stabbed and transported to the hospital.

On Saturday, 10/31/20, two San Francisco officers were assaulted with caustic chemicals during a free speech rally when counter protesters threw bottles filled with the substance. Officers reported trouble breathing and burning sensations. Glass bottles, cans, and eggs were also thrown.

PID assesses there is a continued threat of low to mid-level violence instigated by violent rhetoric and reaction to police actions. It is also assessed that political events, government buildings, and high-profile private property will be targeted by anarchist extremists with vandalism and critical mass attacks designed to prevent normal business or law enforcement operations. Further demonstration activity related to the 2020 presidential election and upcoming January 20 inauguration ceremony is anticipated with the possibility of individuals or groups engaging in civil disorder.

Roughly 26 demonstration permits have been approved by the US Park Police for January 5-7, including Freedom Plaza, Washington Monument, the National Mall Area and the Capitol, and several hotels are sold out on January 5-6, both indicators of large crowds. Permit application estimates indicate there could be approximately 28,000 people in attendance for these events. At least 55 additional demonstrations have been mentioned on social media for January 6, but it is unclear whether any are permitted.

The Proud Boys (RID), a group who is of record for numerous demonstrations at the White House and temporarily protected sites, have advised they will not wear their traditional black and yellow attire and will dress "incognito." The group self-reported plans to demonstrate in smaller groups throughout DC. Current numbers of planned participants were not indicated, but the group stated they will "turn out in record numbers." The group has not been known to engage in civil disobedience and their demonstrations have ended without incidents or arrests.

(U) Recent Events Featuring Violent Tactics

On Saturday, 12/12/20, at least eight officers sustained injuries during violent altercations after a Million MAGA March rally in DC as objects were thrown and officers were assaulted. Multiple assaults took place between protestors and four individuals were stabbed after an argument escalated. Shields, eye gear, helmets, armor, pepper spray, and a variety of weapons were utilized by the opposing sides.

- In Sacramento, individuals threw objects at officers and some deployed pepper spray. Individuals from opposing protest groups wore gas masks, helmets, and armor.
- In Olympia, WA, officers were assaulted by objects including rocks, a baton, and a paintball gun. Individuals from opposing groups possessed firearms and one individual was arrested in connection to a shooting. Additionally, a large firework IED that failed to detonate was found in the area which had to be rendered safe by the state bomb squad.

On Saturday, 12/05/20, three Sacramento officers suffered minor injuries during dueling protests which saw thrown objects and lasers shone into officers' eyes.

On Saturday, 11/14/20, during clashes after the Million MAGA March rally between pro-Trump supporters and counter protesters, four DC police officers were injured while intervening in fights and keeping the opposing sides separate. There were reports of objects being thrown, including rocks and bottles. One protestor was stabbed and transported to the hospital.

On Saturday, 10/31/20, two San Francisco officers were assaulted with caustic chemicals during a free speech rally when counter protesters threw bottles filled with the substance. Officers reported trouble breathing and burning sensations. Glass bottles, cans, and eggs were also thrown.

PID assesses there is a continued threat of low to mid-level violence instigated by violent rhetoric and reaction to police actions. It is also assessed that political events, government buildings, and high-profile private property will be targeted by anarchist extremists with vandalism and critical mass attacks designed to prevent normal business or law enforcement operations. Further demonstration activity related to the 2020 presidential election and upcoming January 20 inauguration ceremony is anticipated with the possibility of individuals or groups engaging in civil disorder.

PID urges all members of the Secret Service to remain vigilant and report any suspicious activity to the Protective Intelligence Operations Center (PIOC) at (b)(7)(E)
