Case No. FL-2020-00134

Nikhel Sus
Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics of Washington
1101 K St., NW Suite 201
Washington, DC 20005

Dear Mr. Sus:

As we noted in our letter dated April 28, 2023, we are processing your request for material under the Freedom of Information Act (“FOIA”), 5 U.S.C. § 552. Thus far, the Department of State (“Department”) has identified an additional 14 responsive records subject to the FOIA. We have determined that all 14 records may be released in part.

An enclosure explains the FOIA exemptions and other grounds for withholding material. Where we have made redactions, the applicable FOIA exemptions are marked on each record. Where applicable, the Department has considered the foreseeable harm standard when reviewing these records and applying FOIA exemptions. All non-exempt material that is reasonably segregable from the exempt material has been released and is enclosed.

We will keep you informed as your case progresses. If you have any questions, your attorney may contact Assistant United States Attorney Benton Peterson at Benton.Peterson@usdoj.gov or (202) 252-2534. Please refer to the case number, FL-2020-00134, and the civil action number, 20-cv-02076, in all correspondence about this case.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Diamonece Hickson". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a large initial "D" and "H".

Diamonece Hickson
Chief, Litigation and Appeals Branch
Office of Information Programs and Services

Enclosures: As stated.

The Freedom of Information Act (5 USC 552)

FOIA Exemptions

(b)(1) Information specifically authorized by an executive order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy. Executive Order 13526 includes the following classification categories:

- 1.4(a) Military plans, systems, or operations

Hello. Yes. I'll advise and work with (b)(6) on the arrangement for this larger group photo.

Best,

We should definitely invite the UAE FM to bring a guest...it may make him more comfortable to attend. AND, he may well bring Amb. Yousef (al Otaiba). Let me know when you have confirmation regarding his attendance.

With respect to our set up for this large group, I think using different chairs is great—I'm assuming that they will take up less space. Where would the UAE FM & potential guest be seated? Would you just add a seat to each side? Honestly, when we've had bigger sized dinner groups (although this will certainly be our largest), Mike and I feel like the biggest problem is sound. If it's a talkative group at all, the sound just gets deafening in that room, but there's nothing to be done about that! Give (b)(6) our thanks for his flexibility.

(b)(6) will you please do photographer (b)(6) the courtesy of letting him know in advance that we have this oversized group at potentially 22 people—so he can have a plan for how to take our group photograph?

(b)(6) regarding the menu—could you ask our wonderful food team, if we could return to a more traditional dessert? The dessert at our last dinner was not a favorite and I think rather than doing fruits (like the poached pear on tap for next Monday) that a traditional period cake or something would be appreciated. And, you might give them a heads up that (b)(6)

(b)(6)

(b)(6)

(b)(6) You might also let (b)(6)

and the team know that we have a Napa winery owner attending this dinner!

Hopefully, we'll have the rest of the bios by the weekend? (Jimmie's fiancée? Taya Kyle's guest? Joe Kernen's wife?) Helps us when we consider any seating reconfiguration. How is Taya's first name pronounced? Is it Tay (rhymes with "pay")-yah?

Could we play Jimmie Allen's music during the dinner? I know that we won't be able to hear much of it due to conversation noise, but it will honor him. On Spotify, in the "best of artists" section there is a Best of Jimmie Allen titled "This is Jimmie Allen". I'm happy to bring my phone and we can use it to play, if that helps.

And, (b)(6) you'll send us a new seating chart before the weekend, yes?

Thanks so much!

Susan

Mrs. Pompeo, with everyone at UNGA next week I wanted to send these draft September 30 Madison dinner documents to you as soon as possible. Attached is the Face Book of the 18 outside guests, the draft seating, the menu and the scenario. This will give you time to tweak the seating and we can always edit it the day of the dinner (And of course rework it if the UAE Foreign Minister and Guest accepts.)

(Please note that Robin Hayes, CEO Jet Blue, just changed his guest this afternoon from Warren Christie, Ex. VP, to Sebastian White—his Director of Corp. Communications. So we will make that change in the menu listing when we finalize as well as the Face Book. Mrs. Hayes is sorry to miss the dinner but (b)(6)

And per the Secretary's request this morning and our note this afternoon, I will reach out to the UAE Ambassador's office to extend the invitation to the UAE Foreign Minister, Sheikh Abdullah bin Zayed bin Sultan Al Nahyan. Thank you for confirming if I should offer for the FM to bring a guest—whether his wife—although a long distance—or his local Ambassador, Amb. Otaiba?

We are in good shape with a full house of 20 guests (and now possibly 21-22 with UAE FM & Guest?) with you and the Secretary. I spoke to (b)(6) and he feels we can make it work, even if we build a larger table. He suggests we use our very new mahogany Chivari chairs to add more space, and have you and the Secretary use the current dining room chairs but the armless ones—more as the hosts but not so obvious as the ones with the arms.

The current guest list is below and I have listed as pending the UAE Foreign Minister and possible guest.

Many thanks and we will stay in touch.

Now Mrs. Pompeo may know more than we do about when things are going to get moving again. She also may be ok inviting with 2 weeks' notice. I think we need to get a steer from her. I don't mind asking her.

I'd be happy to. Should we wait for guidance from the building on hosting events in May? Do you have a recommendation?

I hate to gin up a conversation until we're ready to make a recommendation.

I have heard nothing about the proposed May 28 Madison dinner at this point. I know Cam and Mary-Kate can elaborate IF we think that date or any other proposed event dates will move forward. We receive updates from our HR/Management team twice a week and know they are attempting to formulate future guidelines for re-opening. But again, nothing final and I know Cam will reconfirm.

Wow small world it is! (b)(6)

(b)(6) Wish we could all be going out for dinner! But that will have to wait! 😊

One other note of context which you all probably saw yesterday through (b)(6)'s activity sheets for the FAPB May 31 dinner and then their June 1 meeting and lunch. 7th Floor formally cancelled the Sunday dinner and the Monday meeting is virtual. Again, as you state (b)(6) just a bit too premature with the current guidelines.

Be well and take care (b)(6)

Very best,

Hello (b)(6) and great to hear from you during such an unprecedented time. Fortunately, I think I can say we and our families are all well and fine and grateful to be so.

I have heard nothing about the proposed May 28 Madison dinner at this point. I know Cam and Mary-Kate can elaborate IF we think that date or any other proposed event dates will move forward. We receive updates from our HR/Management team twice a week and know they are attempting to formulate future guidelines for re-opening. But again, nothing final and I know Cam will reconfirm.

Stay well and please don't hesitate to reach out.

All,

Circling around to be sure word has traveled. As we're ten days out and no invites issued, Mike wants the March Madison Dinner cancelled. Mike and I will look at the calendar for April Madison Dinner replacement date (due to State Dinner conflict).

Mike would like for me to meet with the three of you about what he wants to the lead time for Madison Dinner invitations to be issued and how those guest lists may be more easily generated, at this point.

Unrelated note to Cam and Mary Kate, I'd like to have 15-20 minutes with you on gifts. Just the three of us. I believe that you may have a couple items to discuss with me?

Then, another 30 minutes, with the protocol gift leadership (and (b)(6) if you're interested) as I want to pass along inventory ideas, recipient responses to gift, requests, etc.

Hopefully, we could do all three in one swoop? I am flexible all day next Monday 3/9 and Tuesday 3/10. Anything on either of those days work for you?

Thank you,

Susan

I could meet Wednesday in the 10-12:45 time block. (Don't love it but no choice.) Don't need to do gift meetings—those can keep waiting but need Madison Dinner meeting—or, Mike will keep rescheduling these dinners.

Need to meet with (b)(6) and cam and/or Mary Kate to be sure they support the message/ask I'm carrying from Mike.

Hi,

I just heard back from (b)(6) that she did receive your email on Friday. Apparently, Cam and Mary-Kate don't arrive home from the Austin Experience America trip until late tomorrow (Tuesday) – which it seems is why no one has replied to your email....

Do you want to just meet with (b)(6) tomorrow? Or try to schedule time on Wednesday (which I know is already filling up on your schedule) when Cam and Mary-Kate return. I could check with their assistants to ascertain times on Wednesday that one or both would be available.

Thanks.

Hi (b)(6)

I have not heard from anyone in protocol in reply to my email below. I'm holding tomorrow open—hoping that I might meet at least with (b)(6) and either Cam or Mary-Kate. Otherwise, the Madison Dinner progress will be held up another week.

Could you be sure that all three of them received my email and ascertain if tomorrow is even a possibility?

Thank you,

Susan

All,

Circling around to be sure word has traveled. As we're ten days out and no invites issued, Mike wants the March Madison Dinner cancelled. Mike and I will look at the calendar for April Madison Dinner replacement date (due to State Dinner conflict).

Mike would like for me to meet with the three of you about what he wants to the lead time for Madison Dinner invitations to be issued and how those guest lists may be more easily generated, at this point.

Unrelated note to Cam and Mary Kate, I'd like to have 15-20 minutes with you on gifts. Just the three of us. I believe that you may have a couple items to discuss with me?

Then, another 30 minutes, with the protocol gift leadership (and (b)(6) if you're interested) as I want to pass along inventory ideas, recipient responses to gift, requests, etc.

Hopefully, we could do all three in one swoop? I am flexible all day next Monday 3/9 and Tuesday 3/10. Anything on either of those days work for you?

Thank you,

Susan

Hi,

I'm sure this goes without saying, but we officially received the following guidance/approval from S today:

S approved memo 202002637, to lead the State Delegation to the WH Sate Dinner with the Spanish King and Queen/

- 1. He advised he will work on the list of who to invite from our side
- 2. He asked to move the Madison Dinner on April 21 to accommodate this State Dinner.

I have not yet received guidance from S or Mrs. P on an alternative date for rescheduling this Madison Dinner.

Thank you.

Cam,

Thank you for providing this information.

Susan,

Just a reminder there is a Madison Dinner on April 21 that we'll need to reschedule.

Thank you.

Mrs Pompeo,

I wanted to make you aware that the President and Mrs. Trump have invited the King and Queen of Spain for a State Visit on April 21st. It will be White Tie.

I will make sure we keep (b)(6) in the loop as we start the planning the luncheon.

All my best,
Cam
