We are happy to do a white paper outlining our steps. Thus far OTD has been given a small set of requirements for BWCs. The FBI does not [redacted] for security concerns. OTD can add this as a requirement when we begin piloting BWCs. Thus far it has not been a consideration.

I know the EAD may have additional questions regarding how we came to the conclusion that [redacted] is not an option for the FBI. Can we please get a white paper outlining what steps OTD has taken to come to this conclusion and why? In addition, he will want to know how the FBI may address [redacted]
[redacted]

Iâ€™ll have STB staff send out a formal tasker for this request. Is 6/11 a reasonable deadline?

At approximately 3:34 pm this afternoon, I received a call from Adam Braverman of the ODAG. Adam told me that the DAG was in the process of signing the memo to component agencies directing the adoption of a BWC program. A previously provided draft of that memo is attached.

Adam said he expected the signed memo would be transmitted to component agencies within the next 20-30 minutes and that he expected some time of public announcement around 5:00 pm EST.

Thanks,

As everyone is aware, we've been given 30 days to draft a SA BWC policy and submit it to DOJ. I've attached a draft version of the memo giving those directions for those who have not seen it yet.

I'd like to hold a brief call to organize our efforts. Between the draft Interim DOJ Policy document and our own work on internal SOPs, I believe we have a significant amount of the necessary material already drafted to form the basis of our submission. Our discussion will be to determine who will handle what aspects and to develop a rough timeline so that milestones are hit in a timely manner.

Thanks,
Tim

I spoke with the EAD and he is hoping to have the white paper regarding the two questions from the DD by the end of the day today. Does that seem feasible? I know we were trying to expedite it but thought we didn't have a specific deadline.

If I need to reach out to FFD or other agencies in order to get some needed information, please let me know.

Thanks,

Tim -

Here is a very preliminary cut at a draft FBI policy for BWC Use by FBI agents. This is for internal discussion at this point, and please let me know if you have time to discuss some decision points on this tomorrow am.

After discussions with [redacted] in IPO, I decided to structure this as a Policy Guide, and I think it works better as a b5 -1, 2 format than a Policy Notice (I don't think this will change our expedited timeline). Basically, the PG format b6 -1 allows us to have a section for a Policy Statement, [redacted] b7C -1 [redacted] and for Processes and Procedures, [redacted] [redacted] I thought that this worked better for our purposes. Please take a look and let me know what you think.

Also, for your awareness, I tried to flag in yellow (with comments) the areas where we need to make some decisions or need some discussion. Most of the language should look familiar to you and your team, but there are by necessity [redacted] new sections that we needed to try and comply with the DAG memo. b5 -1

Obviously, I just put in some general language as a placeholder for the new sections, and you and your team can make decisions on the best policy for those sections.

I'm sure there are many additions/changes/suggestions that will be needed, but this is a start.

DAD Dimos,

Following up after our conversation with OTD today. There's a lot of points here, so if you'd like to meet to discuss, I'd be happy to do so.

OTD is on board with [redacted] and are expediting their testing of [redacted] to give it a thumbs b5 -1 up before [redacted]. Essentially, they need the device in-hand to ensure that it b7E -4,30 meets requirements before [redacted] Phase 1. They are confident that they can make that determination by the end of next week. From my understanding, and correct me if I'm wrong, that will be plenty of notice to [redacted]

It seems likely that [redacted] will meet reqs, but in the event it does not, we will be left with [redacted] b5 -1
[redacted] b7E -4,30

We don't yet have a sense on whether the [redacted] delivery date is going to be an issue, but we'll continue working to get that answer.

I hope you're well! I am reaching out regarding the [redacted] requirements for FY21 for the BWC initiative.

b5 -1
b7E -30

As FY-end approaches and the BWC launch date is clarified, I am hoping we can circle back on the dates by which each of the FY21 line items are required and confirming whether the procurement vehicles are in place to achieve spending by September 30.

Notably, the [redacted] cost requirement for [redacted] I see in the attached OTD white paper that this is intended for [redacted] [redacted] Is there any updated version of this white paper or could you expand on this requirement?

BODY WORN CAMERA MARKET RESEARCH & COST ESTIMATES

OTD POC: SC Jeffrey L. Coburn

14 March 2021

Background: On October 22, 2020, Operational Technology Division (OTD) was asked to assess costs [redacted] around the activation of Body Worn Cameras (BWCs) for Special Agents (SAs) when conducting arrest operations and during the execution of search warrants. This paper contains market research for the purchase of BWCs for each FBI field office and outlines some considerations for the [redacted]. For actual costs, a Request for Proposal would need to be conducted which will also minimize the possibility of a vendor protest.

BWC Market Research: OTD, in collaboration with Criminal Investigative Division (CID), assessed requirements for the purchase of BWCs for FBI field offices. Cost considerations for BWCs can be broken into [redacted]
