Dear Requester:

This is the twenty-first interim response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, originally received by the United States Secret Service (Secret Service) on January 21, 2021, for information pertaining to:

1. All records from December 1, 2020 to January 6, 2021 reflecting any plans for demonstrations, gatherings, disruptions, attacks, or riots in Washington, D.C. on January 6, 2021 that were identified by any DHS component—including without limitation the Office of Intelligence & Analysis (“I&A”) and the Federal Protective Service (“FPS”)—or other agencies through social media monitoring, threat assessments, or other means.
2. All records from December 1, 2020 to January 6, 2021 reflecting any tips, complaints, referrals, allegations, or reports submitted to any DHS component—including without limitation I&A and FPS—regarding planned demonstrations, gatherings, disruptions, attacks, or riots in Washington, D.C. on January 6, 2021.
3. All records from December 1, 2020 to January 6, 2021 reflecting DHS’s communication to other agencies—including without limitation the U.S. Capitol Police, the D.C. Metropolitan Police Department, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Department of Justice, or the Department of Defense—of the risks or threats posed by planned demonstrations, gatherings, disruptions, attacks, or riots in Washington, D.C. on January 6, 2021.
4. All records from December 1, 2020 to January 6, 2021 relating to any DHS component—including without limitation I&A and FPS—providing assistance or support to the U.S. Capitol Police, the D.C. Metropolitan Police Department, or any other agency in connection with the January 6, 2021 congressional session to count electoral votes.

After a detailed review of all potentially responsive records, 118 page(s) were released in part. Exemptions under the FOIA Statute, Title 5 U.S.C. § 552, and/or the PA Statute, Title 5 U.S.C. § 552a, have been applied where deemed appropriate after considering the foreseeable harm standard outlined in the 2016 amendment to 5 U.S.C. § 552 (a)(8)(A)(i) and DOJ guidance.

Enclosed are the documents responsive to your request, as well as a document that explains the exemptions in more detail. Withheld information is pursuant to the exemptions marked below.

Section 552 (FOIA)

FOIA and Privacy Act Exemption List

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT
SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552

Provisions of the Freedom of Information Act do not apply to matters that are:

- (b) (1) (A) specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive Order to be kept Secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy; and (B) are in fact properly classified pursuant to such Executive Order;
- (b) (2) related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of any agency;
- (b) (3) specifically exempted from disclosure by statute (other than section 552b of this title), if that statute: (A)(i) requires that the matters be withheld from the public in such a manner as to leave no discretion on the issue, or (ii) establishes particular criteria for withholding or refers to particular types of matters to be withheld; and (B) is established after the date of enactment of the OPEN FOIA Act of 2009;
- (b) (4) trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and/or is privileged or confidential;
- (b) (5) inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency; provided that the deliberative process privilege shall not apply to records created 25 years or more before the date on which the records were requested;
- (b) (6) personnel files, medical files and/or similar files with which their disclosure would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;
- (b) (7) records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the information: (A) could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings; (B) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication; (C) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy; (D) could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of a confidential source, including a State, local, foreign agency or authority, or any private institution that furnished information on a confidential basis, and/or when records/information compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation, or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source; (E) would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law; (F) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual;
- (b) (8) contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of an agency responsible for regulation or supervision of financial institutions; and
- (b) (9) geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells.

PRIVACY ACT
SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552a

The provisions of the Privacy Act do not apply to:

- (d) (5) material compiled in reasonable anticipation of a civil action or proceeding;
- (j) (2) material reporting investigative efforts pertaining to enforcement of criminal law including efforts to prevent, control, or reduce crime or apprehend criminals;
- (k)(1) material that is currently and properly classified pursuant to an Executive Order in the interest of national defense or foreign policy;
- (k) (2) material compiled during investigations for law enforcement purposes;
- (k) (3) material maintained in connection with providing protective services to the President of the United States or other individuals pursuant to section 3056 of Title 18;
- (k) (5) investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment, military service, Federal contracts, or for access to classified information, but only to the extent that the disclosure of such material would reveal the identity of the person who furnished information to the Government under an express promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence, or prior to the September 27, 1975, under an implied promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence; and
- (k) (6) testing or examination material used solely to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in the Federal service-the disclosure of which would compromise the objectivity or fairness of the testing or examination process.

Attachments: smime.p7s

Two notable points;

1. I guess a few hundred people in the cul-de-sac is better than 10,000 at the ellipse. Then again they have mags, cops and National Guard and we only have...Us
2. What the hell is a military grade backpack? I know what military grade explosives are but a backpack?? Maybe it means really good stitching?

SUBJECT: Protective Intelligence Advisory: Notable Trends and Tactics for Consideration Ahead of Potential Civil Unrest in the National Capital Region

On 01/06/21, Congress will vote to certify the electoral college results. Approximately fifty different groups have indicated they will demonstrate in Washington, DC. Past encounters between opposing protest groups have occasionally led to violence between them and against law enforcement personnel. Attached is an overview of notable trends and tactics recently observed, which should be considered ahead of potential civil unrest in the National Capital Region. PID has issued multiple Protective Intelligence products since June 6, 2020, concerning threats to law enforcement personnel and civil unrest. Reference is made to previously published PID products documenting officer safety and protest tactics, as follows:

- Protective Intelligence Advisory - Continued Vigilance Update VI - October 29, 2020
- Protective Intelligence Advisory - Potential Contested Presidential Election - September 17, 2020
- Protective Intelligence Brief - Protest Tactics During Civil Unrest - September 3, 2020
- Protective Intelligence Advisory - Trends and Tactics for the Unlawful Use of Lasers - July 10, 2020

- Protective Intelligence Advisory - Tactics Observed During Recent Civil Unrest - July 2, 2020

PID has also posted a comprehensive document on protest tactics. For other PID products regarding officer safety and civil unrest view the Protective Intelligence intranet page here.

(U) Notable Trends and Tactics for Consideration Ahead of Potential Civil Unrest in the National Capital Region

January 4, 2020

(U) Executive Summary

On January 6th, 2021, a joint session of Congress will meet on Capitol Hill to certify the votes of the Electors to the Electoral College from each state in the Union. Large groups of demonstrators are anticipated to travel to Washington, DC in advance of the vote. Past encounters between opposing protest groups have occasionally led to violence between them and against law enforcement personnel, as well as damage to private and government property. Roughly 26 demonstration permits have been approved by the US Park Police for January 5-7, including Freedom Plaza, Washington Monument, the National Mall Area and the Capitol, and several hotels are sold out on January 5-6, both indicators of large crowds. Permit application estimates indicate there could be approximately 28,000 people in attendance for these events. At least 55 additional demonstrations have been mentioned on social media for January 6, but it is unclear whether any are permitted.

The Proud Boys (RID), a group who is of record for numerous demonstrations at the White House and temporarily protected sites, have advised they will not wear their traditional black and yellow attire and will dress "incognito." The group self-reported plans to demonstrate in smaller groups throughout DC. Current numbers of planned participants were not indicated, but the group stated they will "turn out in record numbers." The group has not been known to engage in civil disobedience and their demonstrations have ended without incidents or arrests.

(U) Recent Events Featuring Violent Tactics

On Saturday, 12/12/20, at least eight officers sustained injuries during violent altercations after a Million MAGA March rally in DC as objects were thrown and officers were assaulted. Multiple assaults took place between protestors and four individuals were stabbed after an argument escalated. Shields, eye gear, helmets, armor, pepper spray, and a variety of weapons were utilized by the opposing sides.

- In Sacramento, individuals threw objects at officers and some deployed pepper spray. Individuals from opposing protest groups wore gas masks, helmets, and armor.
- In Olympia, WA, officers were assaulted by objects including rocks, a baton, and a paintball gun. Individuals from opposing groups possessed firearms and one individual was arrested in connection to a shooting. Additionally, a large firework IED that failed to detonate was found in the area which had to be rendered safe by the state bomb squad.

On Saturday, 12/05/20, three Sacramento officers suffered minor injuries during dueling protests which saw thrown objects and lasers shone into officers' eyes.

On Saturday, 11/14/20, during clashes after the Million MAGA March rally between pro-Trump supporters and counter protesters, four DC police officers were injured while intervening in fights and keeping the opposing sides separate. There were reports of objects being thrown, including rocks and bottles. One protestor was stabbed and transported to the hospital.

On Saturday, 10/31/20, two San Francisco officers were assaulted with caustic chemicals during a free speech rally when counter protesters threw bottles filled with the substance. Officers reported trouble breathing and burning sensations. Glass bottles, cans, and eggs were also thrown.

PID assesses there is a continued threat of low to mid-level violence instigated by violent rhetoric and reaction to police actions. It is also assessed that political events, government buildings, and high-profile private property will be targeted by anarchist extremists with vandalism and critical mass attacks designed to prevent normal business or law enforcement operations. Further demonstration activity related to the 2020 presidential election and upcoming January 20 inauguration ceremony is anticipated with the possibility of individuals or groups engaging in civil disorder.

PID urges all members of the Secret Service to remain vigilant and report any suspicious activity to the Protective Intelligence Operations Center (PIOC) at (b)(7)(E)
