1. All records from December 1, 2020 to January 6, 2021 reflecting any plans for demonstrations, gatherings, disruptions, attacks, or riots in Washington, D.C. on January 6, 2021 that were identified by any DHS component—including without limitation the Office of Intelligence & Analysis (“I&A”) and the Federal Protective Service (“FPS”)—or other agencies through social media monitoring, threat assessments, or other means.
2. All records from December 1, 2020 to January 6, 2021 reflecting any tips, complaints, referrals, allegations, or reports submitted to any DHS component—including without limitation I&A and FPS—regarding planned demonstrations, gatherings, disruptions, attacks, or riots in Washington, D.C. on January 6, 2021.
3. All records from December 1, 2020 to January 6, 2021 reflecting DHS’s communication to other agencies—including without limitation the U.S. Capitol Police, the D.C. Metropolitan Police Department, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Department of Justice, or the Department of Defense—of the risks or threats posed by planned demonstrations, gatherings, disruptions, attacks, or riots in Washington, D.C. on January 6, 2021.
4. All records from December 1, 2020 to January 6, 2021 relating to any DHS component—including without limitation I&A and FPS—providing assistance or support to the U.S. Capitol Police, the D.C. Metropolitan Police Department, or any other agency in connection with the January 6, 2021 congressional session to count electoral votes.

January 4, 2020

(U) Executive Summary

On January 6th, 2021, a joint session of Congress will meet on Capitol Hill to certify the votes of the Electors to the Electoral College from each state in the Union. Large groups of demonstrators are anticipated to travel to Washington, DC in advance of the vote. Past encounters between opposing protest groups have occasionally led to violence between them and against law enforcement personnel, as well as damage to private and government property. Roughly 26 demonstration permits have been approved by the US Park Police for January 5-7, including Freedom Plaza, Washington Monument, the National Mall Area and the Capitol, and several hotels are sold out on January 5-6, both indicators of large crowds. Permit application estimates indicate there could be approximately 28,000 people in attendance for these events. At least 55 additional demonstrations have been mentioned on social media for January 6, but it is unclear whether any are permitted.

The Proud Boys (RID), a group who is of record for numerous demonstrations at the White House and temporarily protected sites, have advised they will not wear their traditional black and yellow attire and will dress "incognito." The group self-reported plans to demonstrate in smaller groups throughout DC. Current numbers of planned participants were not indicated, but the group stated they will "turn out in record numbers." The group has not been known to engage in civil disobedience and their demonstrations have ended without incidents or arrests.

(U) Behavior and Tactics

A range of known and novel tactics have been used over the past couple months by various violent demonstrators to attack law enforcement. Tactics have included (b)(7)(E)

(U) Recent Events Featuring Violent Tactics

On Saturday, 12/12/20, at least eight officers sustained injuries during violent altercations after a Million MAGA March rally in DC as objects were thrown and officers were assaulted. Multiple assaults took place between protestors and four individuals were stabbed after an argument escalated. Shields, eye gear, helmets, armor, pepper spray, and a variety of weapons were utilized by the opposing sides.

- In Sacramento, individuals threw objects at officers and some deployed pepper spray. Individuals from opposing protest groups wore gas masks, helmets, and armor.
- In Olympia, WA, officers were assaulted by objects including rocks, a baton, and a paintball gun. Individuals from opposing groups possessed firearms and one individual was arrested in connection to a shooting. Additionally, a large firework IED that failed to detonate was found in the area which had to be rendered safe by the state bomb squad.

On Saturday, 12/05/20, three Sacramento officers suffered minor injuries during dueling protests which saw thrown objects and lasers shone into officers' eyes.

On Saturday, 11/14/20, during clashes after the Million MAGA March rally between pro-Trump supporters and counter protesters, four DC police officers were injured while intervening in fights and keeping the opposing sides separate. There were reports of objects being thrown, including rocks and bottles. One protestor was stabbed and transported to the hospital.

On Saturday, 10/31/20, two San Francisco officers were assaulted with caustic chemicals during a free speech rally when counter protesters threw bottles filled with the substance. Officers reported trouble breathing and burning sensations. Glass bottles, cans, and eggs were also thrown.

PID assesses there is a continued threat of low to mid-level violence instigated by violent rhetoric and reaction to police actions. It is also assessed that political events, government buildings, and high-profile private property will be targeted by anarchist extremists with vandalism and critical mass attacks designed to prevent normal business or law enforcement operations. Further demonstration activity related to the 2020 presidential election and upcoming January 20 inauguration ceremony is anticipated with the possibility of individuals or groups engaging in civil disorder.

PID urges all members of the Secret Service to remain vigilant and report any suspicious activity to the Protective Intelligence Operations Center (PIOC) at (b)(7)(E)

SUBJECT: Protective Intelligence Advisory: Notable Trends and Tactics for Consideration Ahead of Potential Civil Unrest in the National Capital Region

On 01/06/21, Congress will vote to certify the electoral college results. Approximately fifty different groups have indicated they will demonstrate in Washington, DC. Past encounters between opposing protest groups have occasionally led to violence between them and against law enforcement personnel. Attached is an overview of notable trends and tactics recently observed, which should be considered ahead of potential civil unrest in the National Capital Region. PID has issued multiple Protective Intelligence products since June 6, 2020, concerning threats to law enforcement personnel and civil unrest. Reference is made to previously published PID products documenting officer safety and protest tactics, as follows:

- Protective Intelligence Advisory - Continued Vigilance Update VI - October 29, 2020
- Protective Intelligence Advisory - Potential Contested Presidential Election - September 17, 2020
- Protective Intelligence Brief - Protest Tactics During Civil Unrest - September 3, 2020
- Protective Intelligence Advisory - Trends and Tactics for the Unlawful Use of Lasers - July 10, 2020

- Protective Intelligence Advisory - Tactics Observed During Recent Civil Unrest - July 2, 2020

PID has also posted a comprehensive document on protest tactics. For other PID products regarding officer safety and civil unrest view the Protective Intelligence intranet page here.

Sharing important bits from the briefing for tomorrow. Good insights into what you could expect tonight as your shift winds down. Be on the lookout.

"Tomorrow afternoon we will be working together. Due to the large scale demonstrations that are expected, I want to make sure we are prepared and on the same page. Per the attached demonstration tracker, there are numerous pro-Trump groups planning demonstrations. There will be anti-Trump demonstrations as well. The demonstration tracker reads "there was no civil disobedience expected" for every group. I doubt it. Expect civil disobedience.

As you know, in the past, most of the violence comes from the ANTIFA/BLM groups and Proud Boys. The Proud Boys leader was arrested by MPDC yesterday, and they are not real happy about that. There is anti-Police rhetoric coming from Proud Boys because of the arrest. Proud Boys are not expected to wear their usual black and yellow. They are publicizing that they will dress in black as ANTIFA/BLM groups do.

For safety, I want everyone in the White House Zone to pair up. You do not need to walk around shoulder to shoulder, but you should be within sight and in communication with your partner. During the last protest like this, we had one CSD agent physically assaulted by ANTIFA/BLM demonstrators and threatened by Proud Boys. Due to COVID, I do not recommend sharing a car.

Please pay attention to how you dress and present yourself.

SUBJECT: Protective Intelligence Advisory: Notable Trends and Tactics for Consideration Ahead of Potential Civil Unrest in the National Capital Region

On 01/06/21, Congress will vote to certify the electoral college results. Approximately fifty different groups have indicated they will demonstrate in Washington, DC. Past encounters between opposing protest groups have occasionally led to violence between them and against law enforcement personnel. Attached is an overview of notable trends and tactics recently observed, which should be considered ahead of potential civil unrest in the National Capital Region. PID has issued multiple Protective Intelligence products since June 6, 2020, concerning threats to law enforcement personnel and civil unrest. (U) Notable Trends and Tactics for Consideration Ahead of Potential Civil Unrest in the National Capital Region

(U) Executive Summary

On January 6th, 2021, a joint session of Congress will meet on Capitol Hill to certify the votes of the Electors to the Electoral College from each state in the Union. Large groups of demonstrators are anticipated to travel to Washington, DC in advance of the vote. Past encounters between opposing protest groups have occasionally led to violence between them and against law enforcement personnel, as well as damage to private and government property. Roughly 26 demonstration permits have been approved by the US Park Police for January 5-7, including Freedom Plaza, Washington Monument, the National Mall Area and the Capitol, and several hotels are sold out on January 5-6, both indicators of large crowds. Permit application estimates indicate there could be approximately 28,000 people in attendance for these events. At least 55 additional demonstrations have been mentioned on social media for January 6, but it is unclear whether any are permitted.

The Proud Boys (RID), a group who is of record for numerous demonstrations at the White House and temporarily protected sites, have advised they will not wear their traditional black and yellow attire and will dress "incognito." The group self-reported plans to demonstrate in smaller groups throughout DC. Current numbers of planned participants were not indicated, but the group stated they will "turn out in record numbers." The group has not been known to engage in civil disobedience and their demonstrations have ended without incidents or arrests.

(U) Behavior and Tactics

A range of known and novel tactics have been used over the past couple months by various violent demonstrators to attack law enforcement. Tactics have included

(U) Recent Events Featuring Violent Tactics

On Saturday, 12/12/20, at least eight officers sustained injuries during violent altercations after a Million MAGA March rally in DC as objects were thrown and officers were assaulted. Multiple assaults took place between protestors and four individuals were stabbed after an argument escalated. Shields, eye gear, helmets, armor, pepper spray, and a variety of weapons were utilized by the opposing sides.

- In Sacramento, individuals threw objects at officers and some deployed pepper spray. Individuals from opposing protest groups wore gas masks, helmets, and armor.
- In Olympia, WA, officers were assaulted by objects including rocks, a baton, and a paintball gun. Individuals from opposing groups possessed firearms and one individual was arrested in connection to a shooting. Additionally, a large firework IED that failed to detonate was found in the area which had to be rendered safe by the state bomb squad.

On Saturday, 12/05/20, three Sacramento officers suffered minor injuries during dueling protests which saw thrown objects and lasers shone into officers' eyes.

On Saturday, 11/14/20, during clashes after the Million MAGA March rally between pro-Trump supporters and counter protesters, four DC police officers were injured while intervening in fights and keeping the opposing sides separate. There were reports of objects being thrown, including rocks and bottles. One protestor was stabbed and transported to the hospital.

On Saturday, 10/31/20, two San Francisco officers were assaulted with caustic chemicals during a free speech rally when counter protesters threw bottles filled with the substance. Officers reported trouble breathing and burning sensations. Glass bottles, cans, and eggs were also thrown.

PID assesses there is a continued threat of low to mid-level violence instigated by violent rhetoric and reaction to police actions. It is also assessed that political events, government buildings, and high-profile private property will be targeted by anarchist extremists with vandalism and critical mass attacks designed to prevent normal business or law enforcement operations. Further demonstration activity related to the 2020 presidential election and upcoming January 20 inauguration ceremony is anticipated with the possibility of individuals or groups engaging in civil disorder.

PID urges all members of the Secret Service to remain vigilant and report any suspicious activity to the Protective Intelligence Operations Center (PIOC) at (b)(7)(E)

SUBJECT: Protective Intelligence Advisory: Notable Trends and Tactics for Consideration Ahead of Potential Civil Unrest in the National Capital Region

On 01/06/21, Congress will vote to certify the electoral college results. Approximately fifty different groups have indicated they will demonstrate in Washington, DC. Past encounters between opposing protest groups have occasionally led to violence between them and against law enforcement personnel. Attached is an overview of notable trends and tactics recently observed, which should be considered ahead of potential civil unrest in the National Capital Region. PID has issued multiple Protective Intelligence products since June 6, 2020, concerning threats to law enforcement personnel and civil unrest. Reference is made to previously published PID products documenting officer safety and protest tactics, as follows:

- Protective Intelligence Advisory - Continued Vigilance Update VI - October 29, 2020
- Protective Intelligence Advisory - Potential Contested Presidential Election - September 17, 2020
- Protective Intelligence Brief - Protest Tactics During Civil Unrest - September 3, 2020
- Protective Intelligence Advisory - Trends and Tactics for the Unlawful Use of Lasers - July 10, 2020

- Protective Intelligence Advisory - Tactics Observed During Recent Civil Unrest - July 2, 2020

PID has also posted a comprehensive document on protest tactics. For other PID products regarding officer safety and civil unrest view the Protective Intelligence intranet page here.

(U) Notable Trends and Tactics for Consideration Ahead of Potential Civil Unrest in the National Capital Region

January 4, 2020

(U) Executive Summary

On January 6th, 2021, a joint session of Congress will meet on Capitol Hill to certify the votes of the Electors to the Electoral College from each state in the Union. Large groups of demonstrators are anticipated to travel to Washington, DC in advance of the vote. Past encounters between opposing protest groups have occasionally led to violence between them and against law enforcement personnel, as well as damage to private and government property. Roughly 26 demonstration permits have been approved by the US Park Police for January 5-7, including Freedom Plaza, Washington Monument, the National Mall Area and the Capitol, and several hotels are sold out on January 5-6, both indicators of large crowds. Permit application estimates indicate there could be approximately 28,000 people in attendance for these events. At least 55 additional demonstrations have been mentioned on social media for January 6, but it is unclear whether any are permitted.

The Proud Boys (RID), a group who is of record for numerous demonstrations at the White House and temporarily protected sites, have advised they will not wear their traditional black and yellow attire and will dress "incognito." The group self-reported plans to demonstrate in smaller groups throughout DC. Current numbers of planned participants were not indicated, but the group stated they will "turn out in record numbers." The group has not been known to engage in civil disobedience and their demonstrations have ended without incidents or arrests.

(U) Behavior and Tactics

A range of known and novel tactics have been used over the past couple months by various violent demonstrators to attack law enforcement. Tactics have included (b)(7)(E)

(b)(7)(E)

(b)(7)(E)

(U) Recent Events Featuring Violent Tactics

On Saturday, 12/12/20, at least eight officers sustained injuries during violent altercations after a Million MAGA March rally in DC as objects were thrown and officers were assaulted. Multiple assaults took place between protestors and four individuals were stabbed after an argument escalated. Shields, eye gear, helmets, armor, pepper spray, and a variety of weapons were utilized by the opposing sides.

- In Sacramento, individuals threw objects at officers and some deployed pepper spray. Individuals from opposing protest groups wore gas masks, helmets, and armor.
- In Olympia, WA, officers were assaulted by objects including rocks, a baton, and a paintball gun. Individuals from opposing groups possessed firearms and one individual was arrested in connection to a shooting. Additionally, a large firework IED that failed to detonate was found in the area which had to be rendered safe by the state bomb squad.

On Saturday, 12/05/20, three Sacramento officers suffered minor injuries during dueling protests which saw thrown objects and lasers shone into officers' eyes.

On Saturday, 11/14/20, during clashes after the Million MAGA March rally between pro-Trump supporters and counter protesters, four DC police officers were injured while intervening in fights and keeping the opposing sides separate. There were reports of objects being thrown, including rocks and bottles. One protestor was stabbed and transported to the hospital.

On Saturday, 10/31/20, two San Francisco officers were assaulted with caustic chemicals during a free speech rally when counter protesters threw bottles filled with the substance. Officers reported trouble breathing and burning sensations. Glass bottles, cans, and eggs were also thrown.

PID assesses there is a continued threat of low to mid-level violence instigated by violent rhetoric and reaction to police actions. It is also assessed that political events, government buildings, and high-profile private property will be targeted by anarchist extremists with vandalism and critical mass attacks designed to prevent normal business or law enforcement operations. Further demonstration activity related to the 2020 presidential election and upcoming January 20 inauguration ceremony is anticipated with the possibility of individuals or groups engaging in civil disorder.

PID urges all members of the Secret Service to remain vigilant and report any suspicious activity to the Protective Intelligence Operations Center (PIOC) at (b)(6); (b)(7)(C)
