Washington, DC 20005

Dear Mr. Sus:

As we noted in our letter dated November 29, 2023, we are processing your request for material under the Freedom of Information Act (“FOIA”), 5 U.S.C. § 552. Thus far, the Department of State (“Department”) has identified an additional 23 responsive records subject to the FOIA. We have determined that 6 records may be released in full and 17 records may be released in part.

An enclosure explains the FOIA exemptions and other grounds for withholding material. Where we have made redactions, the applicable FOIA exemptions are marked on each record. Where applicable, the Department has considered the foreseeable harm standard when reviewing these records and applying FOIA exemptions. All non-exempt material that is reasonably segregable from the exempt material has been released and is enclosed.

We will keep you informed as your case progresses. If you have any questions, your attorney may contact Assistant United States Attorney Benton Peterson at Benton.Peterson@usdoj.gov or (202) 252-2534. Please refer to the case number, FL-2020-00134, and the civil action number, 20-cv-02076, in all correspondence about this case.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Diamonece Hickson". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a large initial "D" and "H".

Many thanks Mrs. Pompeo for your notes regarding the Tuesday Madison dinner.

All easily accomplished so no worries.

—Will end dinner by 8:10 pm so you may have the Redlers visit the Secretary’s office. We will assist (b)(6) in having refreshments ready there etc. Will have guests seated by 6:50 pm vs the usual 7 pm.

—Yes, the Dessert Drink WILL accompany the Dessert of the Warm Chocolate Pudding. As you just saw in the other email with the Chefs we are on track with Mr. Redler from earlier this week. No problem.

AND—yes we can ADD the Menu listing of the dessert drink “The Kansas Tumbleweed with Freddy’s Frozen Custard” next to the listing of the dessert.

SEATING Edits—copy all and many thanks.

Welcome home!

Greetings!

A few updates and action items from our end for Tuesday evening’s Madison Dinner:

#1, Timeline. Mike has requested that we tighten our schedule by 15 minutes, so that the dinner has disbursed no later than 8:15pm. I think that we could easily be seated for dinner by 6:50pm and adjourned by 8:10pm. (b)(6) you will need to push up our walk on the balcony and group photo to see that we are seated by 6:45/6:50pm.

#2, Post-Dinner. Following dinner, Mike wants the Redlers to join us in his inner office to visit about a couple items. (b)(6) would you please be sure that we have wine (wine opener & glasses!), water and Diet Coke available in Mike's side kitchen, so I can offer refreshments?

#3, Menu. I didn't notice any food/dessert item with Freddy's Frozen Custard on our dinner menu AND as I didn't hear from anyone after sending the email (forwarded below)—I wanted to be sure that someone had made contact with Scott. It could be that the Chef's team and Scott decided against working together on Kansas Tumbleweeds using Scott's custard or some other addition to dessert, but everyone was excited about I when we talked, so I'm just checking?!!

#4, Seating. Mike changed the seating as outlined below (starting with Secretary Pompeo and moving to his right):

- Secretary Pompeo
- Ryan Lance
- Lisa Lance
- Betsy Redler
- Scott Redler (end of table, by window)
- Nahla Reda
- Amb. Reda
- Kimberly Schraf
- Craig Wallace
- Susan Pompeo
- FM Shoukry
- Suzy Shoukry
- Sen. Santorum (end of table, by hallway entrance)
- Karen Santorum
- Pam Thiessen
- Marc Thiessen.

Should be a great evening. Thank you,

Susan

Good Morning,

This note is to introduce our State Department Chef team (b)(6) to one of our upcoming Madison Dinner guests and fellow food expert, Scott Redler.

Recently, I met with (b)(6) regarding our Madison Dinners and informed them that Scott kindly offered to bring frozen custard (in any variety of forms!) to our March 26 Madison Dinner. I shared with (b)(6) that Scott is co-founder and COO of Freddy's Frozen Custard & Steamburgers (founded in our hometown, Wichita, KS!) and knows the Pompeos' LOVE his frozen custard. As I explained, one of our favorite treats is a Kansas Tumbleweed made with Scott's frozen custard. (Which would be an awfully great complement to any dessert!) BUT, I'll let you far more brilliant food minds conclude what works. I appreciate (b)(6) enthusiastically welcoming Scott (and his frozen custard) and can't wait to see what you all concoct for March 26.

Please let me know if you need my assistance with any details. I'm ready to assist!

Here's to good food!

Susan

P.S. I've copied (b)(6) along with Ambassador Lawler (our Chief of Protocol) and (b)(6) (Protocol events person) and (b)(6) —all who team up to make our Madison Dinners special. (b)(6) has the added benefit of knowing the Redlers and having long been a Freddy's fan!!)

Many thanks Mrs. Pompeo. We'll wait to hear from (b)(6) on whichever addresses she may need for us. We do have phone numbers and email addresses. Thank you for sharing your own updates.

We will begin a separate guest list for the July 26th dinner and ADD Sec. and Mrs. Mnuchin to that list per your own conversation. Then wait to hear of your suggestion as a replacement for the Mnuchin's on the 17th.

Late last night, I shared the Madison Dinners invitation with Mike and here are the final edits (on the invite design with James and Dolley Madison's portraits):

#1, First line to read: "The Secretary and Mrs. Mike Pompeo". Please be sure that both our first names are used in the follow up email so that guests have my first name.

#2, The branding "logo" for the dinners should be changed as follow:

*Copy in the top of the circle to read: "Secretary Mike Pompeo"

*Diagonal rectangle across logo to read: "Madison Dinners" (note the plural of dinners is the change)

#3, Add a line underneath the "please respond" line that reads: Questions? Please contact (NAME) at (telephone number). Mike wants to be sure that all invited guests have a name and phone number of a human being to contact. Ideally that name would be the same person receiving the RSVPs. (b)(6) is the protocol coordinator for these dinners, yes? So, maybe her email address/name in both?

#4, We both feel that it is not at all clear that the quote at the bottom is being credited to James Madison because it's not continuous and Pres. Madison's name/titles are in a different font, a smaller font and not bolded as is the quote. Mike would like it changed so that the quote and the quoter are all in the same font, same sized font, same boldness. And, we need to not have the quoter's name flipped to a separate line. That is, something like this:

"The happy union of these States is a wonder, their Constitution a miracle; their example the hope of Liberty throughout the world." — James Madison, 4th President of the United States and 5th U.S. Secretary of State

#5, What is the plan to provide the explanation of the history of these dinners (so as to provide more information about what the heck this dinner is) up front to the invitee?

Just to confirm, our agreed upon method of invitee contact is as follows:

1. (b)(6) to call each guest to alert them to the arriving invitation.
2. Printed invitation postal mailed to each guest at their home.
3. Shortly after the arrival of postal mailed invitation, an electronic invitation with the printed invitation attached and copy in the body of the email that will include Mike and Susan's first names.
4. Follow up call if/when we have not heard from invitee with confirmed response.
5. As each guests responds, Susan will be immediately alerted so that she can sub in a new name as long as time allows, before dinner date.

6. Susan will provide contact information for dinner invitees, to the extent that she has it. If she does not, the responsibility to secure the telephone numbers, mailing addresses and email addresses for the guests will be (b)(6)

Our July 17 dinner invitations need to be mailed this week, as we agreed in our meeting. Thank you!

Hi,

Yes. It's been on my radar since January! ☺

Regarding the Christmas Card: You are certainly welcome to ask. Just FYI: Mrs. Pompeo provided the following feedback to me on June 14 regarding the card. (This was in response to my inquiry about capturing the photo on July 4):

“No photo on July 4. I have a concept (along with a photo op this fall) and am working with Mike, then will share broadly.”

Thank you.

Great ladies. Thank you. I will remind (b)(6) and the Chefs for the Madison portion. Maybe weâ€™ll begin with that.

(b)(6) and Mary-Kateâ€™ defer to you IF you want to also touch base on the holiday card as we have reached fairly critical timing now with staff being on leave etc. I know we have spoken about it (b)(6) and I THINK it is on your radar. Would be ideal to have a decent mock up by the middle of August and then review and tweak just after Labor Day for a final.

Many thanks.

I have a few dates that would work for Mrs. Pompeo to attend the Madison Dinner Annual Review meeting.

Please let me know if any of the following dates work. I am trying to schedule a couple of other meetings on the same day to make the best use of her time.

Options:

Friday, July 19: At this time about any time is open. Does 10am work for you?

Thursday, July 25: Again, at this time about any time is open. 10am? 11:30? 1:30?

Please let me know what works for you and I will send calendar invites for the meeting.

Thank you.

Subject: RE: Madison Dinner Guest Lists/JULY 29/SEPT. 12/SEPT. 30

Many thanks Mrs. Pompeo for the guest names for the next three Madison dinners. We will get to work on these as soon as possible tomorrow. And most are on our existing lists as you noted so it will be fairly expeditious to reach them.

And I understand about several of the guests thinking the emails could be spam. But I always try to connect via telephone first to avoid that impression so they know who I am when I send the email and if a late invite, include the digital copy while mailing the hard copy just for reassurance. (I know Pastor Forsyth's assistant initially thought my email was spam but I had spoken to the receptionist who had not connected with her.) Regardless, I will be extra diligent to ensure the contacts know who I am before sending any written notification.

Many thanks for the research on the celebrities and great that several will be in the area. I will mention that when I reach out. And of course we can find a time to sit down for a review with (b)(6) and the Chefs, etc. (b)(6) weâ€™ll wait to hear from you about a good time to do this.

Safe travels and we will stay in touch.

Best,

Subject: Madison Dinner Guest Lists
Importance: High

(b)(6)

Mike has approved the following names to be invited to the specified Madison Dinners. Please advise when you need more names to fill specific guest list holes created by regrets.

For our July 3 Madison Dinner, we had two guests whose assistants (3 total assistants) thought our electronic invitation was SPAM. (You remember that we also had several who we never heard fromâ€™Iâ€™m betting they, too, had assistants that assumed it was SPAM). If we continue to have the initial Madison Dinner invitation be electronic, is it possible that we make the follow up phone call closer to sending the electronic invite? While some of our guests regularly receive invitations from high ranking government officials, many of our guests do not.

When we have âœœcelebritiesâ€? on our guest lists (athletes, actors, musicians, etc.), we should check their performance/game schedules before wasting everyoneâ€™s time by inviting them. Further, it looks like we are not tuned in to anyoneâ€™s schedule, but our own. I spent quite a bit of time this afternoon researching concert schedules, game schedulesâ€™and even the event schedule at the Library of Congress (so we donâ€™t invite the head librarian again on a night when she is hosting a major event!). Further, if someone is going to be close to DC performing and we are hosting a dinner (see Reba McEntire and Jimmie Allen)â€”we may find a date match up.

It may be time for us to sit down together for a Madison Dinner one year review of all aspects. It would be great to have (b)(6) the chefâ€”others involved, sit in too. Letâ€™s look to schedule that.

Thanks much, (b)(6) Susan

Hi Susan,

I hope you had an enjoyable weekend with Mike, (b)(6)

Amanda Herman sent a note this morning to follow-up on items 3 and 4 below.

She also asked if you had interest in pursuing the following events/proposals from her 4/10/19 email.

• Continuing with the conversation from last week regarding your friends who may be interested in joining our efforts, (b)(6) (Gore) brought up the merit in the past of having a smaller group put together. It would be just your designees or past co-chairs, perhaps called the Chairmen’s Circle or similar, that would be a place to recognize those friends and get them involved in our strategy to make the most of our opportunities to fill the event. This group would not meet necessarily, but would help by lending their name, sending invitations to friends and engaging corporate/foundation sponsors, auction donors and/or honorees. The “meeting” could be the luncheon at the Embassy Residence or perhaps one other time closer to the date of the event. I would love to hear your thoughts on this.

• Additionally, I wanted to invite you to our On the Move Luncheon on April 29, 2019. Our CEO, Cyndi Zagieboylo, will be in attendance and would love to have you join us as her guest. I have attached the invitation and information about our wonderful keynote speaker, Lydiaemily. I do hope you will be able to join us! It is our 15th annual luncheon and is always an inspirational event. It is also a great way to also get caught up on recent updates and breakthroughs in our research, advocacy, programs and services!

Please let me know how I can be of assistance.

Thank you.

Susan,

I wanted to follow-up on a few items related to the 2019 Ambassadors Ball. All of these items have been included in previous correspondence, but I thought it might be helpful to have this information in one place.

1. I have compiled a 2019 Ambassadors Ball planning binder for you. It includes information from a number of emails/updates from Amanda Herman. If you find it helpful, we can continue to add information. I am sending the binder home with Mike.
2. Attached an printed/tucked into the front pocket of the binder is the spreadsheet you asked me to put together of the spouses of the foreign diplomats who previously attended Madison Dinners.
3. Amanda asked for a list of anyone who should be invited to the kick-off luncheon on May 13. I would be glad to send the information (first/last names and email addresses?) for Mike's sister, Rachael and Rachael's Mom. (I already have Rachael's last name and email address.)
4. Amanda Herman has proposed the following dates during the week of May 6 for the next committee meeting:
Monday, May 6 at 8:30am or noon
or
Wednesday, May 8 at 8:30am
or
Thursday, May 9 at noon

Please let me know if you have questions or how I can be helpful.

Thank you.

Before raiding Fort Ticonderoga in 1775 at the beginning of the Revolutionary War, Ethan Allen and the Green Mountain Boys went drinking at a nearby tavern where they knocked back a mixture of rum and hard cider. Finding only a dozing guard, Allen stormed the officers' quarters and demanded they surrender "in the name of the Continental Congress." The English didn't offer much resistance and the fort was successfully seized, thanks in part to the blood-warming Stone Fence.

Cherry Bounce

MORELLO CHERRY-INFUSED RYE WHISKEY, SPICED CHERRY BITTERS, LUXARDO MARASCHINO CHERRY

A delicious taste of summer, Cherry Bounce dates back to the 17th century and was a favorite drink of George Washington, who enjoyed the brandy-based recipe made by his wife Martha. He was known to take a canteen full for jaunts with the Presidential dog. The tradition lives on today with an update on the colonial-era classic: ripe summer cherries are steeped with cane sugar, infused into rye whiskey, dashed with aromatic bitters and garnished with a maraschino-soaked cherry.

The Quill

RYE WHISKEY AND MADEIRA, ZESTY GRAPEFRUIT JUICE,

The Quill is inspired by the writing implement used by Thomas Jefferson in drafting the Declaration of Independence. The Boston Tea Party

EARL GREY TEA-INFUSED RUM
GOLDEN FALERNUM, GINGER TONIC, CITRUS

This flavorful cocktail is inspired by the famous protest by American patriots in Boston, Massachusetts in 1773 and uses popular 18th century ingredients. Crafted with locally produced rum, tea sourced from the Charleston Tea Plantation of South Carolina and Golden Falernum, an exotic Caribbean liqueur infused with the flavors of the tropics such as ginger, allspice, and clove with a hint of vanilla and zesty lime.
