Subject: January 6th Event / Happy Holidays!

Good Morning All,

Many of you are probably aware of this by now but there will be another Women For America First (AKA Million MAGA March) First Amendment event to occur in Washington, DC on January 6, 2021. This event was first mentioned by POTUS early Saturday morning when he tweeted about a report concerning election fraud and said that there will be a big protest in D.C. on January 6th and that it "will be wild". Since then, the tweet has gained significant traction and many of the same groups from the November 14th and December 12th events are planning on attending.

Details are still limited at this time but the main organizer is requesting to hold the event at Freedom Plaza, the same location as the previous two events. However, this location has not been approved by NPS at this time. Additionally, the organizer has submitted a parade permit application to MPD from Freedom Plaza to the U.S. Capitol. Expected attendance according to the permit application is the same as before. We are seeing the same upticks in hotel reservations as we did for the previous two events. Some of the counter groups are also aware of this event and have posted messages on social media about countering this event.

The following website provides some information on the event, invited speakers, and hotels with room blocks. The counter groups are already sending out messages to their followers asking them to call the hotels and urge them to cancel reservations so you may start receiving calls from hotels in your AOR regarding harassing phone calls. If this occurs, please let us know.

<https://wildprotest.com/#hotels>

This information is being provided for everyone's situational awareness. The MWCOG Police Intelligence Subcommittee will keep the group updated on any new information leading up to the event. Please let me know if anyone has any questions regarding this event.

On a separate note, I'd like to thank each and every one of you for your support and continued participation in the MWCOG Police Intelligence Subcommittee! This has definitely been a year of unique challenges between the COVID-19 pandemic, the ongoing civil unrest occurring across the nation, and the general uptick in anti-police sentiment. I feel that this subcommittee has played a pivotal role in getting timely and accurate information out to all the agencies in the NCR and this could not have been accomplished without each and every one of you. Thank you again for all that you do and I wish everyone happy holiday!

"Armed and Ready, Mr. President": Demonstrators Urged to Bring Guns, Prepare for Violence at January 6 "Stop the Steal" Protest in DC

Following Twitter posts from President Trump rallying his supporters to attend an upcoming "Stop the Steal" protest at the U.S National Mall the day Congress will meet to officially decide the 2020 Presidential election, users on a pro-Trump online forum interpreted Trump's statements as call to take direct action: insisting they have finally received formal "permission" from the President to arm themselves for the "revolutionary" protest and to engage in political violence.

VIEW ON SOURCEFEED DATABASE

On December 19, 2020, a user began a thread on a prominent pro-Trump forum - where users have been known to promote violence and hate speech - containing a recent Tweet from President Trump claiming it was "statistically impossible" for him to have lost the 2020 Election and thereby encouraging his followers to attend a "wild" upcoming "Stop the Steal" protest in Washington D.C. on January 6.

In addition to users on the ensuing thread organizing ride shares and lodging for the event, the post was met with an array of incitements from users who felt emboldened by the President's statement to take direct action at the event. Users not only threatened to attack left-wing protesters but also Democratic and Republic politicians and other government officials involved in the finalizing of the electoral college vote count.

Multiple users targeted the Congressmen and women for intimidation, with one user encouraging participants to "be already in place when Congress tries to get to their meeting" and "make sure they know who to fear." Another user similarly suggested that if "congress votes against the true will of the people" and elects Joe Biden as President despite "all the evidence of fraud and corruption," then the protesters should "start marching into the chambers."

Urging protesters to "go after the traitors directly," a user claimed that a military strategist gave them the advice to "have a list of their family members as well."

Asserting that the right to bear arms was provided for "exactly times like this," another user spurred those participating at the January 6 event to "exercise your 2nd amendment" if the Republican politicians refuse to support Trump's election fraud disputes. They also insisted anyone "scared" of doing so should "stay out of the way."

"Fuck [the Republican party] right back," wrote another user, urging Trump's supporters to "show up with guns and threaten them with death."

In response to one user stating that they "don't condone violence" against politicians, a user retorted that "patriots" who are "still too cowardly to condone violence" are "part of the problem," exclaiming the violence "NEEDS TO FUCKING HAPPEN."

A screenshot of the incitement follows:

When users inquired if Trump was in fact advocating for participants to attend the march armed when he published the Tweet promoting the protest, several users affirmed that they interpreted his statement as calling on his supporters to bring weapons.

"I read that as armed," one user insisted, positing that if "everyone commits" to carrying weapons at the protest then "how can they stop us?" Another user suggested that if participants "aren't marching armed" then there is no "point" to marching at all. A user also claimed that when Trump made his statement he "knew what we will be bringing," thereby echoing a call to action previously made by the President in regard to the Proud Boys: "Stand back and stand by."

Making reference to Trump's tweet asserting the event "will be wild," one user claimed Trump was implying the rally would be violent like the "wild West." Another user insisted that Trump was thereby asking protest participants to "be wild," asserting that a supposedly violent insurrection by his supporters has "always been the plan."

"[Trump] can't exactly openly tell you to revolt...This is the closest he'll ever get," the aforementioned user continued, receiving a response from a user declaring: "Then bring the guns we shall." A screenshot of the interaction follows:

Openly denouncing and disregarding the strict gun laws of Washington D.C., several users declared their intentions to bring firearms and other weapons to the march. "Armed and ready, Mr. President," wrote one user, with another declaring they will "be open carrying and so will my friends." The latter user also noted that Trump's supporters have just been "waiting for Trump to say the word" and thereby proclaimed: "there is not enough cops in DC to stop what is coming." These and other examples of users announcing they are bringing weapons to the protest can be seen in the screenshot below:

▼ I can carry wherever the fuck I want to, and if a private property owner wants me to leave because of it, fine, I'll leave, but in any public building now, I'll be carrying however I please.

Moreover, users on the forum strongly urged those who plan on attending armed to do so in large groups in attempt to avoid being apprehended by law enforcement. One user also suggested going to the march "in numbers so heavy and so protected" that they are "able to arrest treasonous members of the government." A user responded to the aforementioned comment opining that "this is what Trump expects," underscoring that the President's supporters can "not allow congress to certify a fraudulent election and get away with...don't allow any government forces to intimidate us."

"Numbers and organization will matter," another user commented, warning that "the lone wolf armed patriots" will be "picked off deep in the city" by law enforcement.

Following several inquiries regarding the legality of open and concealed firearm carry in the U.S capital, users proposed that that participants of the protest should not have to abide by the law: claiming as justification that the "treasonous" Democratic party is responsible for committing numerous "crimes:" such as "stealing the election," "betraying your country to a Chinese spy," "murdering the elderly in nursing homes," and "killing Ambassadors and Americans with proxy wars or drone strikes." One user thereby proclaimed, "[Democrats] did what they had to do now we gotta do the same."

User "POS" posited that because Democrats have already allegedly "broken" the "Rule of Law," Trump's supporters must "fall back to the next level: the Rule of War." Notably, the aforementioned user concluded their statement with the phrase "Might makes Right," a popular creed among totalitarian regimes.

"We need to follow the law while stopping a communist takeover?" remarked a user, with another baselessly maintaining that the Capital's firearm ban is "completely unconstitutional and therefore illegal." Acknowledging that bringing guns to the march is "definitely not legal," one user nonetheless encouraged others to "2A anyway." Similarly, another user suggested that protesters should disregard the legality of firearm carrying because "this is war and we're clearly in a post-legal phase of our society."

Many users also drew on Revolutionary War language to incite violence at the event, with one user urging "Be there on the 6th ready for 1776" and another making the following incitement against Trump's opposition:

This is taxation without representation. Im nothing special and I pay 50 g's a year in taxes and who it goes to hates me because I'm a white male. This is war and these blue haired pussies are about to get capped.

Predicting and encouraging violent unrest at the rally, user "CR6" stated that they would be "shocked" if the pro-Trump protesters "just stand by waving a bunch of flags while they go right ahead and certify an illegitimate president." The user then proposed that the "goal" of the protest should be to make sure politicians known there "WILL be consequences" if President-elect Joe Biden is inaugurated. CR6 asserted that the protest is a "historical opportunity" to "change the world," declaring that Trump's supporters will not "accept a fraudulent election" and that the "DC Rats" - or government officials involved in deciding the election - will either "listen to [their] voices" or face "their own peril."

Prophesying left-wing counter-protesters engaging in altercations at the protest, one user asked if "citizen's arrests" would be legal, to which another user responded: "don't arrest," instead advocating for "Citizens firing squad."

"Shooting tyrants is the basis of the 2nd amendment," incited another user.

Maintaining that "peaceful action" is not an option, user "AN456" declared that they "do want violence" to ensue at the protest, positing: "You think a crowd of yelling peaceful protesters is going to actually change anything?...If you can't find a use for violence, then In January, Biden will be your president." The aforementioned user further insisted that "people will get shot" at the protest.

"Fun fact: no revolution has ever been won without violence," one user postulated, with another user insisting that Trump's supporters now have the opportunity to "kill the opposition." After a user responded to the latter comment cautioning that killing the opposition is "not a legal avenue" to secure the election for Trump, another user retorted, "when they are committing treason it is...treason is punishable by death," with user "B2040" also thereby proclaiming: "I'm gonna do it anyway."

Subject: January 6th Event / Happy Holidays!

Good Morning All,

Many of you are probably aware of this by now but there will be another Women For America First (AKA Million MAGA March) First Amendment event to occur in Washington, DC on January 6, 2021. This event was first mentioned by POTUS early Saturday morning when he tweeted about a report concerning election fraud and said that there will be a big protest in D.C. on January 6th and that it "will be wild". Since then, the tweet has gained significant traction and many of the same groups from the November 14th and December 12th events are planning on attending.

Details are still limited at this time but the main organizer is requesting to hold the event at Freedom Plaza, the same location as the previous two events. However, this location has not been approved by NPS at this time. Additionally, the organizer has submitted a parade permit application to MPD from Freedom Plaza to the U.S. Capitol. Expected attendance according to the permit application is the same as before. We are seeing the same upticks in hotel reservations as we did for the previous two events. Some of the counter groups are also aware of this event and have posted messages on social media about countering this event.

The following website provides some information on the event, invited speakers, and hotels with room blocks. The counter groups are already sending out messages to their followers asking them to call the hotels and urge them to cancel reservations so you may start receiving calls from hotels in your AOR regarding harassing phone calls. If this occurs, please let us know.

This information is being provided for everyone's situational awareness. The MWCOG Police Intelligence Subcommittee will keep the group updated on any new information leading up to the event. Please let me know if anyone has any questions regarding this event.

On a separate note, I'd like to thank each and every one of you for your support and continued participation in the MWCOG Police Intelligence Subcommittee! This has definitely been a year of unique challenges between the COVID-19 pandemic, the ongoing civil unrest occurring across the nation, and the general uptick in anti-police sentiment. I feel that this subcommittee has played a pivotal role in getting timely and accurate information out to all the agencies in the NCR and this could not have been accomplished without each and every one of you. Thank you again for all that you do and I wish everyone happy holiday!

Subject: January 6th Event / Happy Holidays!

Good Morning All,

Many of you are probably aware of this by now but there will be another Women For America First (AKA Million MAGA March) First Amendment event to occur in Washington, DC on January 6, 2021. This event was first mentioned by POTUS early Saturday morning when he tweeted about a report concerning election fraud and said that there will be a big protest in D.C. on January 6th and that it "will be wild". Since then, the tweet has gained significant traction and many of the same groups from the November 14th and December 12th events are planning on attending.

Details are still limited at this time but the main organizer is requesting to hold the event at Freedom Plaza, the same location as the previous two events. However, this location has not been approved by NPS at this time. Additionally, the organizer has submitted a parade permit application to MPD from Freedom Plaza to the U.S. Capitol. Expected attendance according to the permit application is the same as before. We are seeing the same upticks in hotel reservations as we did for the previous two events. Some of the counter groups are also aware of this event and have posted messages on social media about countering this event.

The following website provides some information on the event, invited speakers, and hotels with room blocks. The counter groups are already sending out messages to their followers asking them to call the hotels and urge them to cancel reservations so you may start receiving calls from hotels in your AOR regarding harassing phone calls. If this occurs, please let us know.

This information is being provided for everyone's situational awareness. The MWCOG Police Intelligence Subcommittee will keep the group updated on any new information leading up to the event. Please let me know if anyone has any questions regarding this event.

On a separate note, I'd like to thank each and every one of you for your support and continued participation in the MWCOG Police Intelligence Subcommittee! This has definitely been a year of unique challenges between the COVID-19 pandemic, the ongoing civil unrest occurring across the nation, and the general uptick in anti-police sentiment. I feel that this subcommittee has played a pivotal role in getting timely and accurate information out to all the agencies in the NCR and this could not have been accomplished without each and every one of you. Thank you again for all that you do and I wish everyone happy holiday!

Subject: Demonstration Activity - 1/06/21

Everyone,

On 1/06/21, there is another planned Million MAGA March. Additionally, there are numerous other groups intending to host demonstrations in Washington, DC. PID is currently tracking 20 groups hosting various demonstrations, predominately election related. Demonstrations are currently expected in Freedom Plaza, Capitol Hill, and the National Mall. At this time, there are no indications of civil disobedience. Participation numbers for several groups are currently low, while others are unknown at this time. The PDLs and OSB personnel will continue to update information on the groups planning to attend, as well as the anticipated attendance numbers.

PID will take a similar posture to our response to the previous Million MAGA Marches. All sections should identify personnel to man the Director's Crisis Center during both the dayshift and evening shift.

Each section should provide PID Ops with the names of the personnel assigned and their scheduled hours for the DCC coverage.

Please contact OPS with any questions or concerns.

Thanks,

(b)(6);

Subject: Protective Intelligence update Tuesday, December 22, 2020

Good evening,

No new open source information has been discovered related to POTUS' visit to Mar-a-Lago on December 23, 2020 to January 1, 2021.

- The visit was mentioned briefly on local news again this evening however motorcade routes were not mentioned. The local newspaper has reported that President Trump will arrive tomorrow evening "sometime after 6:30pm on Wednesday and will stay through Jan. 1." Additionally it has been reported that POTUS will stay at Mar-a-Lago but "it's unclear who will be staying with him during his 10 day stay or what his plans are." WPBF, the local news station confirmed that invitations for the NYE party have been sent out. They advise of road closures on South Ocean Blvd and also reported that the church "Bethesda By the Sea" where the Trumps were married and have attended services in the past would only be holding virtual services this year.
- According to PBSO, we can expect mostly pro-Trump demonstrators to line the street from the airport to the bridge leading into MAL. The other area historically known as a gathering point for demonstrators is St. Catherine's Greek Orthodox Church which is located just before the bridge leading to MAL. To date, PBSO states they have never had anyone attempt to disrupt the M/C movements.
- An update to our "sonic attack" tip. According to Region 3, "this case was discussed during the R3 morning meeting the file was updated. No further investigation or documents are requested at this time."
- News and social media focused on President Trump reportedly signing an executive order to standardize new federal buildings to a classical look. There was also chatter requesting President Trump to veto the latest COVID relief bill. A Twitter post by President Trump stated there will be a "big protest in D.C. on January 6," which continues to gain significant social media attention.

- In case you didn't read through the 60+ slides sent out the other night, be advised that open carry in FL is illegal except in some instances such as actively hunting, at the gun range, or while fishing. PBSO advised that it is not unusual for some demonstrators to have a fishing pole and line in the water near the bridge leading to MAL open carrying assault style rifles. In the past, they were demonstrating for 2A rights. No incidents have arisen from those demonstrations.
- If you're new to Florida, be advised that guns will be found at the main checkpoint in vehicles. Usually, they are legal. Please keep this in mind if you hear that a weapon was found during vehicle screening. Additionally, you can expect people to attempt to drop off Christmas cards, COVID vaccines, etc. to the main vehicle check point.

If you have any questions or concerns, please call or email.

Very Respectfully,

Subject: RE: Protective Intelligence update

Good evening,

No new information has been discovered related to POTUS' visit to Mar-a-Lago on December 23, 2020 to January 1, 2021.

The visit was mentioned briefly on local news however motorcade routes and sensitive information were not mentioned.

The "sonic attack" tipster was interviewed by USSS/MIA/JTTF today and the information was passed to PID. Again, this tip was not specific to our visit. Additionally, at this time, this tip has not been deemed credible.

Again, if you read the slides provided to the post standers you will see mention of a rally supporting POTUS. That was an error on my part, as that rally occurred during the October visit to Mar-a-Lago.

If you hear from your local law enforcement contacts anything of protective intelligence importance, please do not hesitate to pass that information along.

At this time there have been no exclusions from any of the planned sites.

If you have any questions or concerns, please call or email.

Very Respectfully,

Subject: Protective Intelligence update

Good evening,

In preparation for the President of the United States' visit to Palm Beach, Florida on December 23, 2020, Open Source Unit (OSU) conducted open source research for protective intelligence information related to the visit. Social media and general internet searches did not reveal any awareness or attention for the visit, nor was any information of protective intelligence value discovered.

At this time, the open source unit has not identified any planned demonstrations for the upcoming visit. The visit has received little to no local media coverage. Details regarding the method of travel and motorcade route have not been revealed.

As mentioned at the countdown meeting, USSS/MIA forwarded information to the PIOC regarding a sonic attack on POTUS on January 6, 2021. That information was received, evaluated, and researched. It was determined that there would be no PIOC alert and the report would be forwarded to Region 3 for a decision on how to proceed with this information in the near future.

There was no mention of Mar-a-Lago but because of the geographical proximity of the subject (about 45 minutes to an hour south of Palm Beach), USSS/MIA forwarded the information to me for situational awareness. FYI, the subject specifically said the "sound weapon" could be smuggled into electronic devices, specifically a camera.

If you hear from your local law enforcement contacts anything of protective intelligence importance, please do not hesitate to pass that information along.

If you have any questions or concerns, please call or email.

Very Respectfully,

(b)(6); (b)(7)(C)

Special Agent

Protective Intelligence Division

United States Secret Service
