

D. Federal Building Damage

- Approximately 150 federal buildings damaged between 29 May and 5 June, according to DHS Federal Protective Service (FPS) reporting. Note: FPS protects over 9,000 federal facilities. Overall federal building damage estimates could be larger as FPS is not responsible for protecting all federal buildings (1800 CTS Intel Summary June 5)
- Notable Examples:
  - Open investigation into partially detonated PVC pipe bomb recovered from lobby of MI Secretary of State's office space (in a building shared with the federal bankruptcy court) early Sunday. (USAO Activity Report June 5 0800)
  - The Richmond Federal Courthouse was spray painted with a thick black line to designate it as a target for potential vandalism/arson. (intel email from (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) per FBI June 4)
  - Broken window in a building housing space leased by USAO UT (intel email fro (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) per FBI June 4)

- Background on ANTIFA:
  - (b)(5) per NSD
[REDACTED]
  - They do not have a current overall case on ANTIFA. They do not recognize it as a legitimate group. They prefer the term anarchist extremist instead of ANTIFA if you are referencing it in a report. Past events in social media uses left and right side to lure in opposition.
- Background on Boogaloo Boys:
  - (b)(7)(E) per FBI
[REDACTED]
  - CNN reported that an “alert” was posted to an online Boogaloo forum calling for action after the poster had a run-in with Minneapolis Police. A handful of heavily armed members of the Boogaloo movement then traveled to Minneapolis, many from far away. (CNN June 4 1630)

- Case Highlight: Three self-identified members of the Boogaloo movement were charged with conspiracy to damage and destroy by fire and explosive. These three defendants met over the past two months to discuss their plans to violently overthrow the U.S. government, including by exploiting George Floyd's death to stir confusion and cause rioting. On May 30, the defendants agreed to take part in a Black Lives Matter protest in Las Vegas. Before the protest, law enforcement observed them preparing Molotov cocktails. (Federal Arrest Data June 5 0700)

F. Potential Hotspots

- Houston, Texas. Three services for Mr. Floyd are planned for June 8 and 9 in the Houston area, which could spark various types of unrest. Although the North Carolina memorial service remained peaceful, there was significant potential for problems. Converging on the public viewing and service, for example, were large contingents from opposing organizations, including several hundred members of OutKast motorcycle gang, a small group of heavily armed and validated new Black Panther Party members, and various members of the Crips. Although tensions were high at times, the interactions remained peaceful.
- Pennsylvania. A Philadelphia police inspector was charged after being filmed hitting an individual in the back of the head with a metal baton during a gathering. (DHS NOC Interim Update, 7 JUN 0400)
- Virginia. On 6 June in Richlands VA, a 23-year-old "incel" suffered injuries to his hands and face after a homemade device that he planned to use at a shopping mall exploded. Subsequent search of the suspect's home revealed a TATP and other items that could be used for an explosive device. (JCC Media Notification, 7 JUN 0021)
- North Carolina. Fayetteville Police officers came under fire when responding to looting at gun store. No officers were injured and the suspects escaped. (DHS NOC Interim Update, 7 JUN 0400)
- Virginia. Intelligence indicates a white confederate group (NFI) is planning to protest at the Lee Monument in Richmond VA today at 1300-1500 with a counter protest planned at the same time. (USAO Activity Report, 5 JUN 1944)
- Georgia (b)(7)(E) per FBI [REDACTED]. Last weekend five Boogaloo Boys carrying AR-styled weapons attended and the protest ended with the deployment of tear gas. (USAO Activity Report, 5 JUN 1551)
- New York, NY. There is uncorroborated social media posts suggesting violence and participation of antagonists and white supremacists during protests planned for today in Syracuse and Troy NY. (USAO Activity Report, 5 JUN 1930)
