Ratifying an amendment to the constitution of the United States relating to the terms of office of the President.

WHEREAS, Both houses of the eightieth congress of the United States of America, at the first session, by a constitutional majority of two-thirds, made the following proposition to amend the constitution of the United States of America in the following words, to wit:

“JOINT RESOLUTION

“Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States relating to the terms of office of the President.

“Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled (two-thirds of each House concurring therein), That the following article is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states:

“ARTICLE

“SECTION 1. No person shall be elected to the office of the President more than twice, and no person who has held the office of President, or acted as President, for more than two years of a term to which some other person was elected President shall be elected to the office of the President more than once. But this Article shall not apply to any person holding the office of President when this Article was proposed by the Congress, and shall not prevent any person who may be holding the office of President, or acting as President, during the term within which this Article becomes operative from holding the office of President or acting as President during the remainder of such term.

"SECTION 2. This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states within seven years from the date of its submission to the states by the Congress." Therefore, be it

Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, That the said proposed amendment to the constitution of the United States of America be and the same is hereby ratified by the legislature of the state of Wisconsin; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution, certified by the secretary of state be forwarded by the governor to the secretary of state at Washington, and the presiding officer of each house of the congress of the United States.

Jt. Res. No. 51, A.,

Relating to the life and public service of Bernhard C. Ziegler.

Bernhard C. Ziegler of the city of West Bend, Wisconsin, died on May 6, 1946, following a heart attack at his home.

He was born in the town of Trenton, Washington county, January 25, 1884, and attended the public schools at West Bend, Wisconsin.

Mr. Ziegler played an important part in the development of the city of West Bend. He was one of the founders of the West Bend Aluminum Company and was the active head of the company from 1911 until his death. He was the founder, chairman of the board and president of the First National Bank of West Bend; chairman of the board of Gehl Bros. Manufacturing Company; president of the West Bend Mutual Fire Insurance Company and a director of the Wisconsin Manufacturers' Association.

Mr. Ziegler was a public spirited citizen and gave unstintingly of his time and interest for the welfare of the people of the state. He was chairman of the Washington County Park Commission and after appointment by Governor Goodland served on the Wisconsin State Council of Defense and as state chairman of the Quota Committee of the Wisconsin War Fund during 1943, 1944 and 1945.

The conscientious performance of his duties in the various positions held by him and his high ideals of business service gained for him the confidence and respect of the people.

Surviving Mr. Ziegler are his widow, Edna; one daughter, Barbara, and two sons, Bernhard C. and R. Douglas.
