CHAPTER 508

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 12

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION ratifying a proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States relating to the terms of office of the president.

WHEREAS, At the first session of the Eightieth Congress of the United States of America, a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States relating to the terms of office of the President was adopted, and

WHEREAS, said joint resolution provided that the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states, and

WHEREAS, a true copy of said joint resolution has been forwarded to this Legislature by the Department of State of the United States of America. Said resolution being as follows:

“EIGHTIETH CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AT THE FIRST SESSION

Begun and held at the City of Washington on Friday, the third day of January, one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled (two-thirds of each house concurring therein), That the following article is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislature of three-fourths of the several states:

“ARTICLE—

“Section 1. No person shall be elected to the office of the President more than twice, and no person who has held the office of President, or acted as President, for more than two years of a term to which some other person was elected President shall be elected to the office of the President more than once. But this Article shall not apply to any person holding the office of President when this Article was proposed by the Congress, and shall not prevent any person who may be holding the office of President, or acting as President, during the term within which this Article becomes operative from holding the office of President or acting as President during the remainder of such term.

"Sec. 2. This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states within seven years from the date of its submission to the states by the Congress."

Joseph W. Martin, Jr.
Speaker of the House of Representatives
Acting President of the Senate pro tempore"

Therefore, Be it Resolved by the Mississippi Senate, the House of Representatives concurring therein, That the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States relating to the terms of office of the President, as set forth herein above, is hereby ratified and approved.

Resolved further, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Department of State of the United States of America, the secretary of the senate, and the clerk of the house of representatives of the United States.

Adopted by the Senate, February 10, 1948

Adopted by the House of Representatives, February 12, 1948

CHAPTER 509

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 14

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION to amend section 241 of the Mississippi Constitution of 1890 so as to provide the qualifications of electors, and amending by providing that the wife of a minister of the Gospel legally residing with him shall be qualified to vote after a residence of six months in the election district, or incorporated city or town, if otherwise qualified.

Be it Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Mississippi, two-thirds of the Senate and House of Representatives agreeing thereto, That the following amendment to the constitution of the State of Mississippi be submitted to the qualified voters of the state for ratification or rejection at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D., 1948, viz:

Amend section 241 of the constitution of the State of Mississippi, so that it shall read as follows:

Section 241. Every inhabitant of this state, except idiots, insane persons, and Indians not taxed, who is a citizen of the United States of America, twenty-one years old and upwards, who has resided in this state for two years, and one year in the election district, or in
