

Mr. Wiggin of Manchester offered the following concurrent resolution:

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

*In the year of Our Lord
One thousand nine hundred and forty-seven*

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Ratifying a proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America.

Whereas, both houses of the eightieth Congress of the United States of America, by a constitutional majority of two-thirds thereof, have made the following proposition to amend the Constitution of the United States of America, in the following words, to wit:

“JOINT RESOLUTION

“Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States relating to the terms of office of the President.

“Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled (two-thirds of each House concurring therein), That the following article is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States:

“ARTICLE—

“Section 1. No person shall be elected to the office of the President more than twice, and no person who has held the office of President, or acted as President, for more than two years of a term to which some other person was elected President shall be elected to the office of the President more than once. But this Article shall not apply to any person holding the office of President when this Article was proposed by the Congress, and shall not prevent any person who may be holding the office of President, or acting as President, during the term within which this Article becomes operative from holding the office of President or acting as President during the remainder of such term.

"Section 2. This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years from the date of its submission to the States by the Congress."

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of New Hampshire, the Senate concurring: That the said proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America be, and the same is hereby ratified by the legislature of the State of New Hampshire.

That certified copies of this preamble and concurrent resolution be forwarded by His Excellency the Governor to the Secretary of State at Washington, to the presiding officer of the United States Senate, and to the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States.

The question being on the concurrent resolution.
