

actor and because he loves dearly our Hoosier history and traditions, and

Whereas, he has been forced to retire from active direction of and participation in the Hoosier Historical Institutes: Now, therefore

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the House of Representatives concurring:

Section 1. That the heart-felt thanks and appreciation of a grateful Hoosier citizenry is hereby expressed to Ross F. Lockridge, with the hope that he will have many years of further service to his beloved state and that this great endeavor of his creation, the Hoosier Historical Institutes, may be perpetuated as a means of preserving our proud and noble Hoosier heritage and creating in our people the desire to cling to the ideals of their birthright as American and Hoosier citizens.

Sec. 2. Be it resolved further that Ross F. Lockridge be hereby encouraged and urged to record his magic voice delivering the Hoosier Historical Institute Site Recitals for use in our schools and for the benefit of Hoosier posterity.

Sec. 3. Be it further resolved, that the secretary of the Senate have a copy of this resolution engrossed and forward the same to Ross F. Lockridge.

The resolution was read in full and adopted by a voice vote.

The Speaker handed down Senate Joint Resolution No. 1, by Senator Somers:

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 1

Whereas, Both houses of the Eightieth Congress of the United States of America, at the first session of such Congress, by a constitutional majority of two-thirds of each house thereof, made a proposition to amend the Constitution of the United States in the following words, to wit:

Joint Resolution

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States relating to the terms of office of the President.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled (two-thirds of each house concurring therein), that the following Article is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states:

Article

Section 1. No person shall be elected to the office of the President more than twice, and no person who has held the office of President, or acted as President, for more than two years of a term to which some other person was elected President shall be elected to the office of the President more than once. But this Article shall not apply to any person holding the office of President when this Article was proposed by the Congress, and shall not prevent any person who may be holding