Good morning, Ms. Paolucci, and thank you for your quick response. Also, I've spoken to my cocounsel Chris Flood this morning, and he's related to me your phone conversation with him this morning. We appreciate your offer to send the paperwork via FedEx and that's how we'd like to proceed. While, we have accepted the pardon on Cong. Cuellar's behalf and have received it from you via email last week (thank you) please send it via FedEx to the following address which is his Congressional office address:

Congressman Henry Cuellar
2308 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

It is likely that Cong. Cuellar's wife Imelda will also wish her documents to be sent to the same address, but I'll let her counsel confirm that with you directly this morning they are cc'd here).

Thank you.

Ms. Paolucci - Good afternoon. I am co-counsel with Chris Flood on the Cong. Henry Cuellar case. If the package has not already been sent to us, may we have Cong. Cuellar personally accept the delivery when he returns to Washington on Tuesday? We're a little concerned about the reliability and timing of the mails. If direct personal delivery is possible, please let us know the location, hours and other logistics. Also, please let us know the best number to reach you in the event we have questions, and please call us if needed--my cell and office numbers are below in my signature block and Chris' are also below. Thank you.

Great. We will send care of your office a packet that includes a sealed copy of the original warrant and an individual warrant signed and sealed by the Pardon Attorney. I am also attaching a digital copy of the sealed warrant for Mr. Cuellar's convenience. Additionally, the packet will contain an acknowledgement of receipt on blue paper. We would greatly appreciate your returning the completed receipt to us at USPardon.Attorney@usdoj.gov.

Finally, in order to ensure proper notification of the grant (such that it is reflected in law enforcement databases), it would be a great help if Mr. Cuellar would share his date and place of birth with us.

Thanks so much for your assistance.

Best regards,

Jackie
