

APPENDIX: AMICI AND THEIR QUALIFICATIONS

Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics in Washington (“CREW”) is a nonprofit, nonpartisan corporation organized under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Through a combined approach of research, advocacy, public education, and litigation, CREW seeks to protect the rights of citizens to be informed about the activities of government officials and to ensure the integrity of those officials. To that end, CREW routinely submits letters and administrative complaints concerning potential ethical violations by public officials and, if necessary, takes legal action to redress those violations.

Virginia Canter – Chief Ethics Counsel at CREW; former Associate White House Counsel for ethics to Presidents Barack Obama and Bill Clinton; former Senior Ethics Counsel, Department of the Treasury; former Assistant Ethics Counsel, Securities and Exchange Commission.

Ambassador (ret.) Norman L. Eisen – Chair of CREW; former Special Counsel and Special Assistant to President Barack Obama for ethics and government reform.

Don W. Fox – Senior Instructor in Leadership Education at Culver Academies; former General Counsel, U.S. Office of Government Ethics (“OGE”); former Acting Director, OGE; former career ethics official, Department of the Air Force.

Marilyn Glynn – former General Counsel, and Acting Director, OGE; former member, President's Council on Integrity and Efficiency.

Karen Clasen Kucik – former Attorney-Advisor, Department of Justice, Justice Management Division; former ethics attorney, Department of Commerce; former attorney, Office of the White House Counsel; former attorney, Department of Health and Human Services (HHS).

Richard W. Painter – Member of CREW’s board; former Associate White House Counsel to President George W. Bush.

Lawrence D. Reynolds – former Assistant General Counsel for the Department of Housing and Urban Development with responsibility for ethics; former career ethics attorney, Department of Labor.

Trip Rothschild – former Associate General Counsel, Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

Walter Shaub – Senior Advisor at CREW; former Director, Deputy General Counsel, and supervisory attorney, OGE; former attorney, Department of Veterans Affairs; former attorney, HHS.

Richard M. Thomas – former Associate General Counsel, OGE; former ethics counsel, HHS.